THE YEAR OF

PREFACE

The Hurricane staff presents to you 1968: the year of school spirit, the year of championship sports, the year scarlet showed up in everything, the year of the new Hurricane House, the year MSHS became known to the world, the year dramatics became more than a word, the year the students really loved . . . 1968—YEAR OF THE HAPPENINGS.

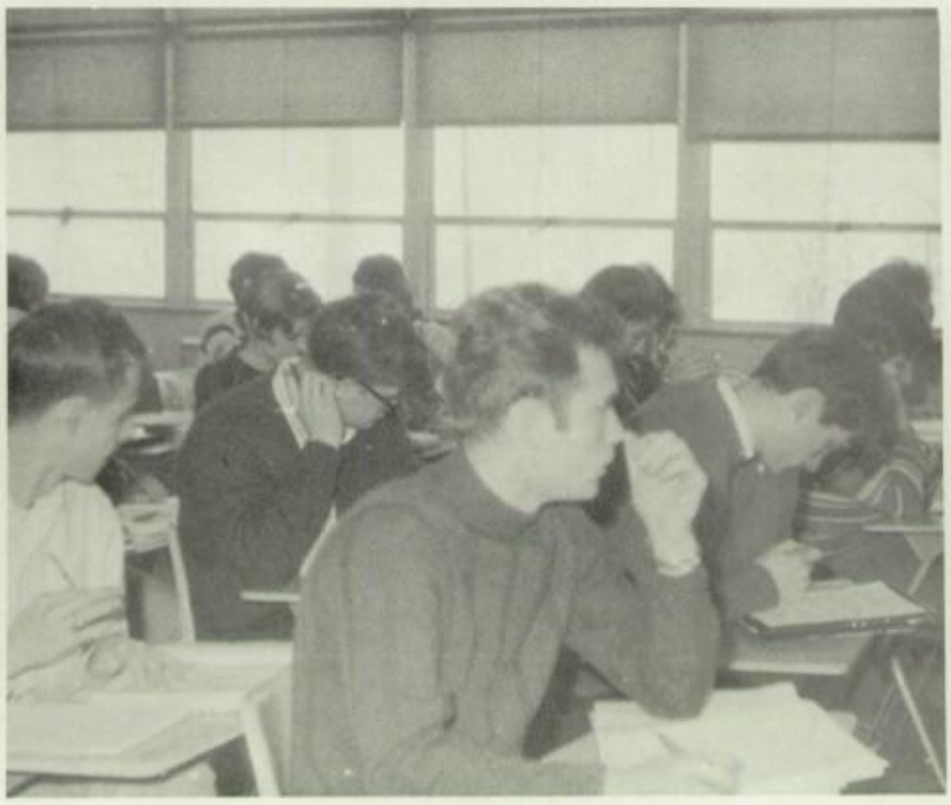
NUMBER 1 HAPPENINGS



ACADEMIC HAPPENINGS

We Honor . . .

Mrs. Katherine Williams

Secretary—Advisor—Friend

Patience is the result, not only of understanding, but also of a sincere interest in other people. In all respects, MSHS owes much to the one who shows to all the true meaning of helpfulness and patience in everything she does, and who is always willing to stop her busy schedule for any problems brought to her. Katherine Williams, we give you our respect, our love, and 1968—Year of the Happenings.

County Administrators

Smyth County School Board: seated: Mac J. Blackwell, Jr.; Francis J. Copenhaver, chairman; Cecil R. Greer; Robert A. Hunter; William Kelley; Harlan S. Pafford. Standing: Miss Carolyn Sheffey; Mrs. Virginia T. Stone; Mrs. Joyce Cornett; Layton Choate; J. Leonard Mauck, Superintendent; William P. Buchanan; Earl Horne; Mrs. Helen Rosenbaum; Mrs. Brenda C. Brooks; Miss Katrina Umberger; E. R. Thompson.

We owe many thanks to the Smyth County Board of Supervisors and the School Board for their contributions to our school, especially this year's new gymnasium. Our county administrators work to give us the best of all possible educations by constantly striving for new and better equipment, materials, and school facilities.

LEADERS OF

HOWARD W. WILLIAMS
University of Tennessee—M.S.

A well-known personality around MSHS, Mr. Howard Williams is the chief co-ordinator of our happenings, overseeing students and teachers alike. As administrator, disciplinarian, advisor, and ardent supporter of our activities, Mr. Williams is the important link between our school and the community.

LAYTON DAVID HENRY
Emory and Henry—B.S.

In his second year as Assistant Principal of MSHS, Mr. David Henry spends most of his time on the tasks of issuing excuses for absences and tardiness, overseeing parking problems, and keeping 7th period detention hall. Though in charge of discipline at MSHS, he is popular among both students and teachers. He helps keep our school running smoothly.

THE HAPPENINGS

It's paperwork that keeps our school running smoothly.

"Now look at it this way."

Our busy office staff works for every student in our school in at least one way during each school day. Whether it is writing excuses, typing the daily bulletin, or counseling students on their many problems, they are always available to help us enjoy ourselves while getting a good education.

Balancing the books is a vital part of Mrs. Byrd's job.

Work can be fun.

MSHS GUIDANCE

Mr. Fred McDonald, head guidance counselor, and the sponsors of each of the classes, are constantly ready to listen to and help solve students' problems of curriculum and college choice. The Guidance Department aims to help each student make his high school career a pleasant, profitable, and useful one, and to develop his abilities to the highest possible degree in order to insure success in his future endeavors.

FRED McDONALD
Emory & Henry—B.A.

The Guidance Staff
Seated: Mrs. Winters, Mrs. Echols, Mrs. Courtney. Standing: Mrs. Linkous, Mr. McDonald.

Students listen eagerly to the representative of Radford College at College Career Night.

Jim Owens and Dennis Blankenbeckler discuss their UPWARD BOUND experiences.

PROGRAM

Patriotism was emphasized in a special choral assembly.

Carefully planned assembly programs at MSHS are designed to include students, teachers, and adults in the community in a variety of educational, musical, athletic, artistic, and creative activities. Assembly programs provide a vital part of the total school happenings by creating school spirit, providing students with a better understanding of the school, building better student leadership, and integrating all facets of school life.

A familiar face in assemblies.

Mr. Harrington assisted the freshmen in choosing careers.

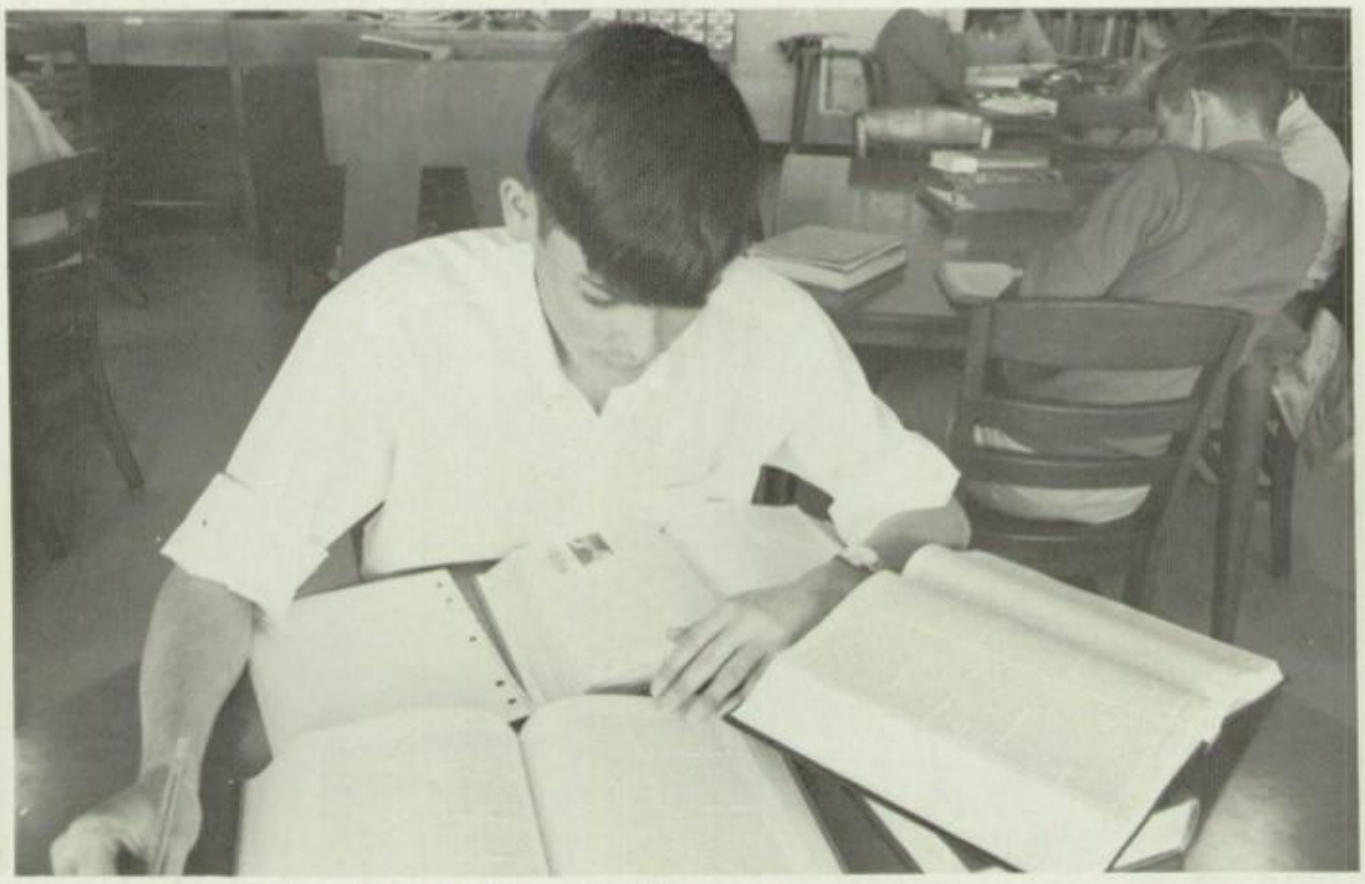
A PLACE

Students learn about careers in the vertical file.

Whether students enter our library to study, to find needed research materials, or simply to explore for a good book to read, they find the quiet atmosphere they need. Miss Fleenor, our librarian, has kept a modern selection of materials, as well as the older classics, always on hand for the 264,600 hours of study spent by the students of MSHS over the seven years of her guidance.

The library as a place for study.

The card catalogue is a fast way to find needed materials.



Richard Darnell uses the library as a place for research.

ALWAYS BUSY

The Library Club of MSHS helps Miss Fleenor in all of her many duties in the library. They work to promote a knowledge of the use of the library to the student body, as well as contributing to the personal growth of each student by assisting in reference work and recommending appropriate materials.

TRULA G. FLEENOR
Radford—B.S.

Miss Fleenor assists Debbie Groseclose in choosing a book.

Library club members help Miss Fleenor in the library.

Library Club Officers: Linda Cress, Joanne Shupe, Dixie Olinger, Miss Fleenor, Sponsor, H. G. Fouse, Linda Anders, and Freida Parks.

A NEW HAPPENING

English IV students built models and designed bulletin boards to make classes more interesting.

The English department took on a new look this year, not only in the old familiar books being discarded in favor of new ones, but also in our new teachers. The study of both grammar and literature is undertaken, with the Freshmen and Sophomore classes learning the basic skills built upon in the Junior and Senior studies of American and English literature. Book reports, term papers, and projects supplement the course.

Turn about is fair play—Kyle takes over.

MARVIN E. WINTERS — Emory & Henry—B.A.

BETTY G. WILSON—Radford—B.S.

PATRICIA MAIDEN—Radford—B,S.

N ENGLISH

Freshmen English classes get a varied insight into grammar and literature through using the projector.

Cheryl McKinnon illustrates her British brogue to Mr. Callis' sophomore English class.

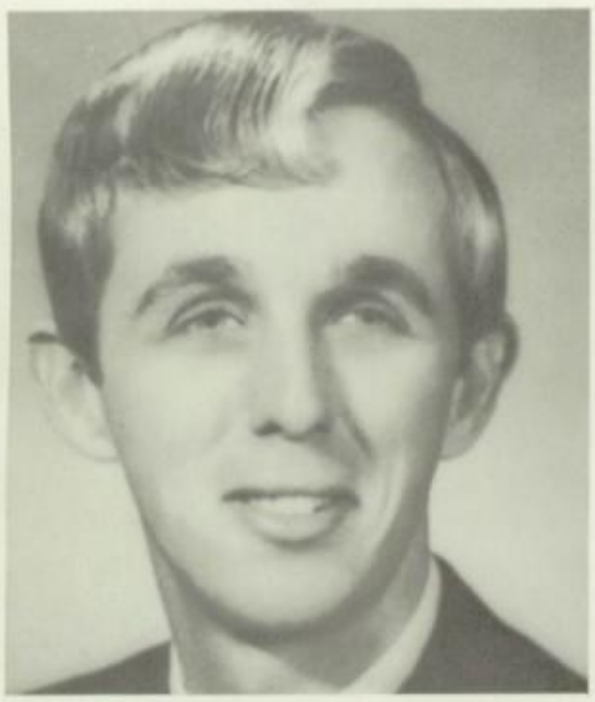
Mrs. Maiden's Engish II students show the life of Silas Marner through extra work.

ROGER CALLIS
Emory & Henry—B.A.

SHIRLEY RECTOR
Radford—B.S.

ELOISE M. COURTNEY
Kentucky Wesleyan—B.A.

THE OPEN DOOR



RICHARD FULLER
Emory & Henry—B.A.

Furthering our understanding of other countries through the knowledge of their language, the Spanish department of MSHS is a vital part of our school curriculum. Developing the basic skills in the first year course, second and third year Spanish bring an insight of other nations to the language student.

Marvin & Kay illustrate Mexican terrain to their class.

Earning money can be fun for Mr. Henry's Spanish III class and club.

Ole!

TO OTHER COUNTRIES

Latin accompanies Spanish in the foreign language department. The student learns not only the Latin language, but also Roman history, customs, and dress. In the second year course the student's knowledge is developed to the point of understanding the ancient Romans.

FRED P. HERNDON
Radford—M.S.

Latin Club Officers: Charlotte Warren, Dottie Meek, Mr. Herndon, Sponsor, Ann Clear, Rick French, Don BeVille, and Mary Rowland.

Did Caesar look like this?

Latin II scholars study the ancient Roman world.

A CLOSER WORLD

The bulletin board in Miss Rector's World Geography class helps students learn of other countries.

LILLIE P. ECHOLS
Duke University—M.A.

LOUIS D. DABNEY
University of Pennsylvania
—M.S.

U. S. History students constructed a clipper ship to illustrate mid 19th century oceanic transportation.

U. S. History, World History, and World Geography are studied, not only to give students a better insight into the country in which we live, but also to aid in their understanding of other nations. In order to facilitate learning, filmstrips, tape recorders, record players, and an overhead projector are used. Economics and Government students study the current events of our nation in order to understand their obligations to society and their duties as citizens. The American Observer was used this year to supplement classes.

Under Mr. Dabney's supervision, the World History class correlates their books and maps.

THROUGH SOCIAL STUDIES

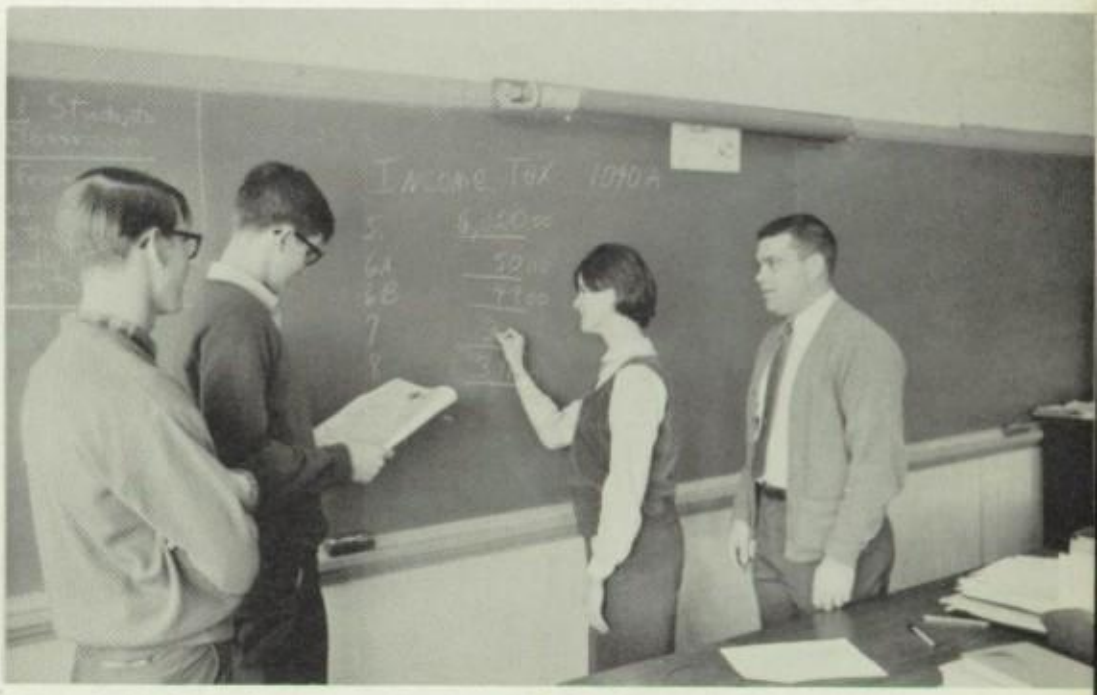
CHARLES E. HARKINS
University of Virginia—M.Ed.

MARVIN LESLIE
University of Virginia—B.A.

ALVIN CROWDER
Emory & Henry College—B.A.

The Government classes, in order to gain a better understanding of our national voting system, held a mock election.

The Government classes listen to excerpts from President Johnson's State of the Union Address.



Mr. Crowder discusses Income Tax forms with his Economics class.

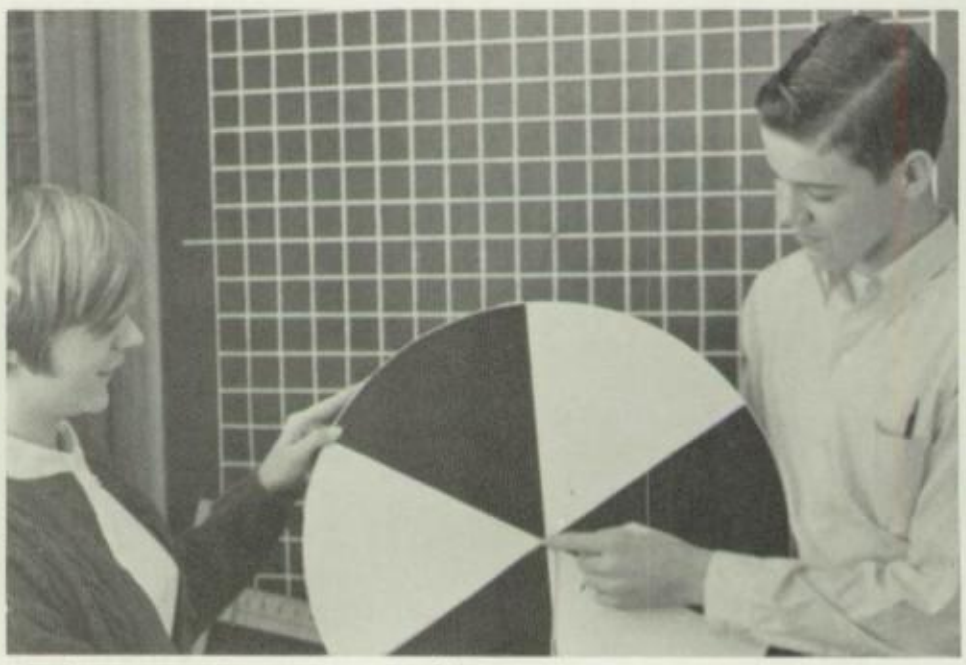
MATH: KEY TO

Newton didn't do it this way, but . . .

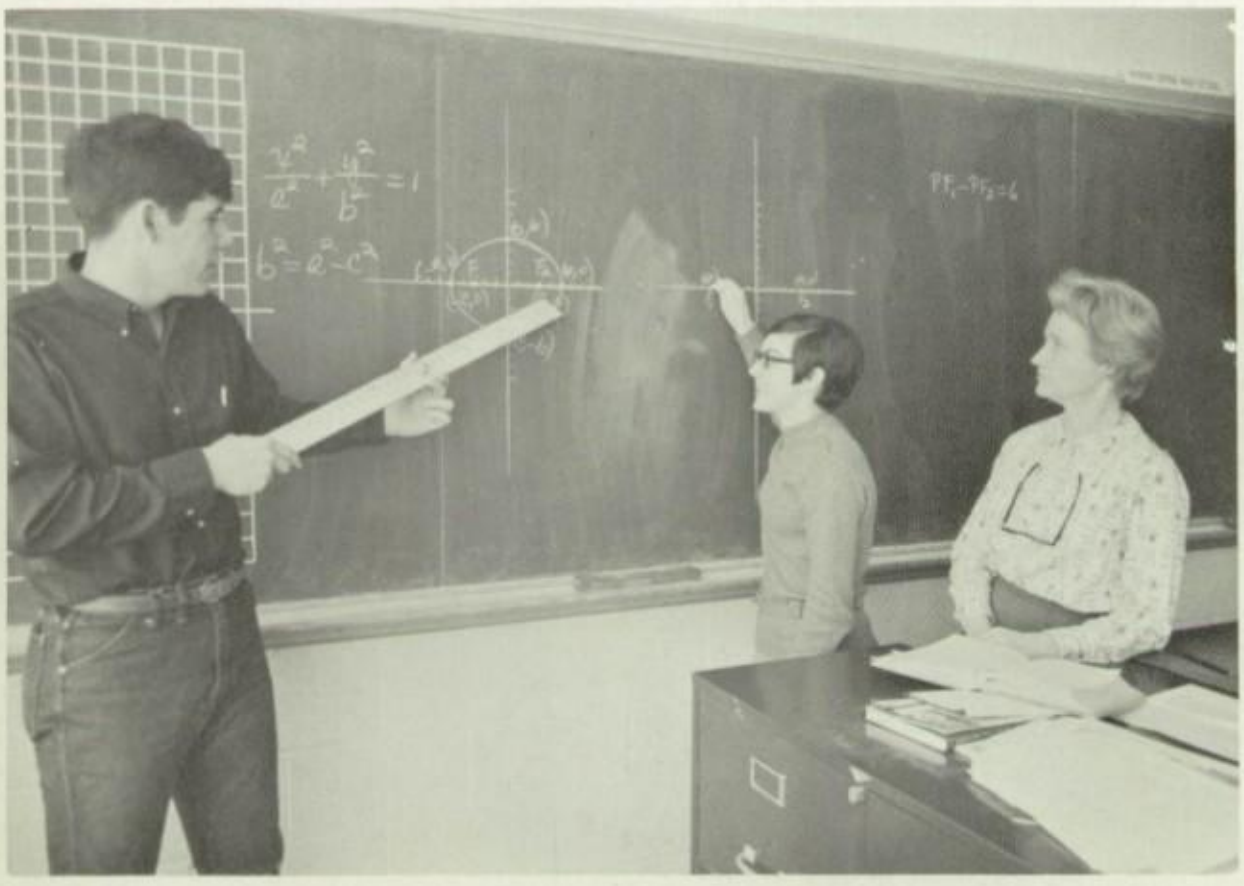
WILLIAM M. EARP
Emory & Henry College—B.A.

SALLY H. WERTH
Randolph Macon College—B.A

Mr. Wingfield aids his students in constructions.



Students in Trigonometry learn to measure the circumference of a circle.



Algebra II students study graphing in Mrs. Werth's class.

THE MODERN AGE

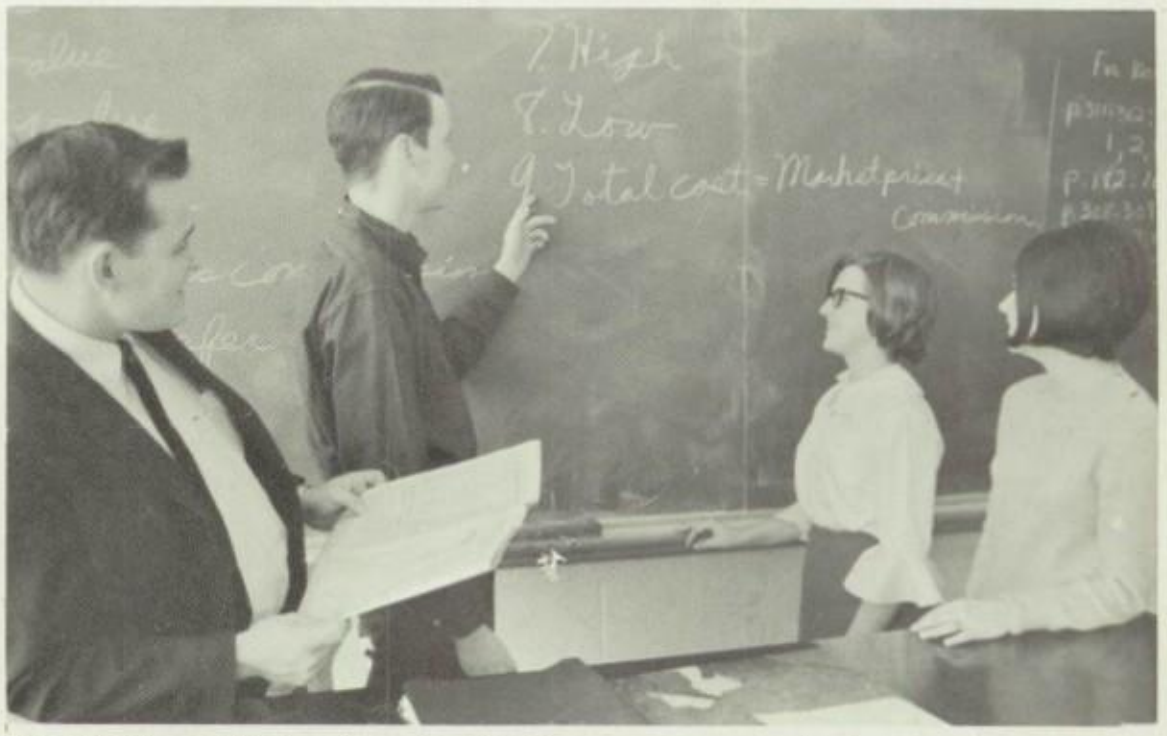
BENJAMIN ARNOLD
Milligan College—B.S.

P. G. WINGFIELD
Emory & Henry—B.S.

Mr. Arnold aids his students in their classwork activities of Recordkeeping.

The purpose of the academic math course is to encourage students to develop their reasoning potential. A background in the basic principles learned in Algebra I is put to use in the new concepts that lead into the advanced courses of Geometry, Algebra II, and Advanced Algebra and Trigonometry.

The business students need a practical knowledge of numbers. Through Business Math, this need is fulfilled, and students are prepared to meet the challenges of the business world.



The Business Math class studies the newspaper stock reports.

The Bookkeeping class works on their practice sets with the aid of adding machines.

Mr. Fisher explains the use of a calibrator to his Refresher math class.

MENTAL ALERTNESS

JACK L. COX
Emory & Henry—B.A.

JOHN K. FISHER
Emory & Henry—B.S.

JANE H. WATERS
Radford—B.S.

MARLENE S. WINTERS
Radford—B.S.

The Biology and Advanced Biology classes study the structure of animals and plants through the use of textbooks, films, diagrams, and science projects. Chemistry students learn the basic principles of chemical structure through lectures and experimentation while the principles of matter and energy are investigated through Physics.

The Physics class looks on as Mr. Fisher illustrates the use of levers.

Mr. Cox helps his chemistry students make hydrogen chloride.

Biology students compare the parts of a real fish with their diagrams.

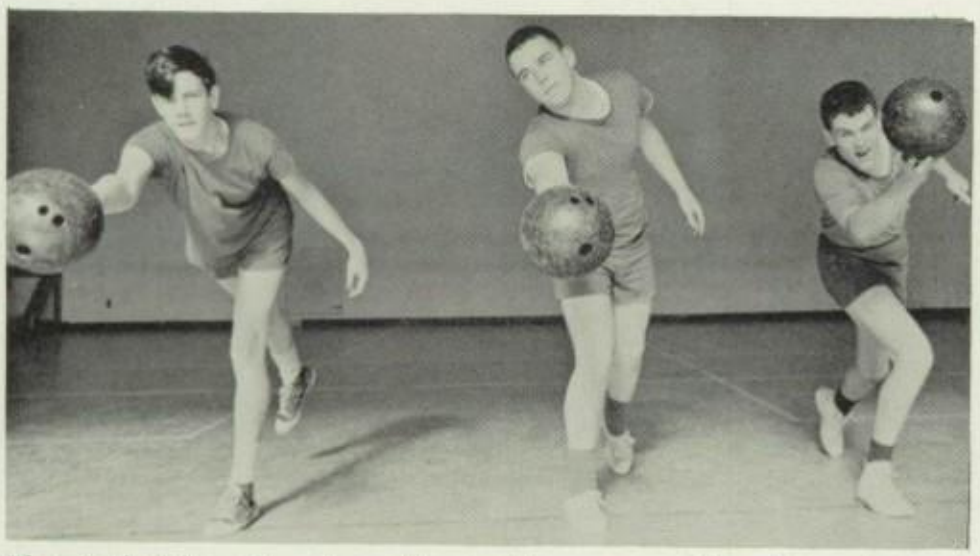
BUILDS PHYSICAL WELL-BEING

Which way is up?

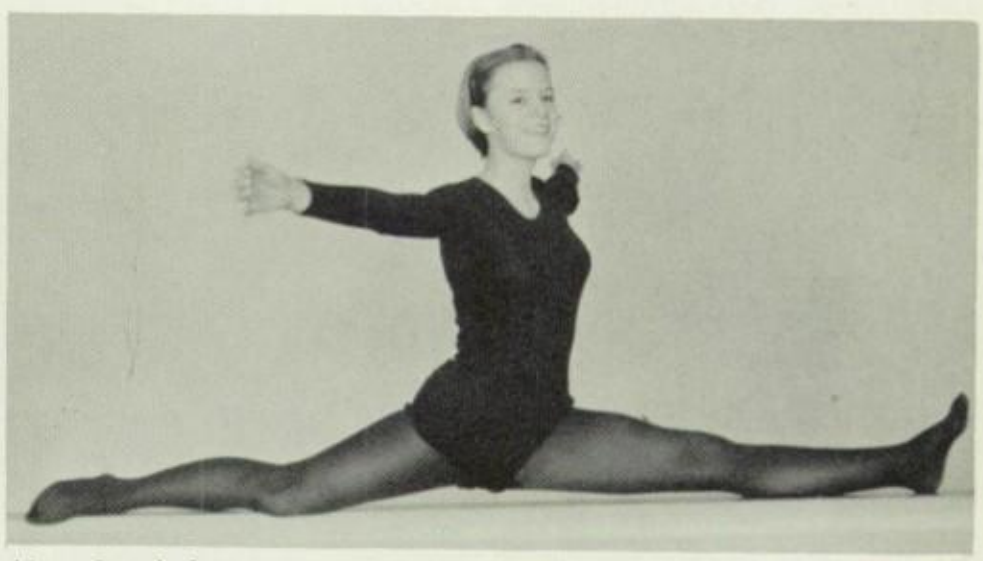
MARLIN WEAVER
Emory & Henry College—B.A.

JANE WEAVER
Emory & Henry College—B.A.

All Physical Education activities, required through the tenth grade, are planned with the idea of giving students a healthy body as well as a healthy attitude. Girls' activities include archery, bowling, and the balance beam. Boys stay fit through wrestling and lifting weights, as well as taking part in the more common sports. The classroom supplements of mental health and drivers' education include field trips to Southwestern State Hospital and a behind-the-wheel driving course.



Physical Education boys learn the proper bowling stance.



Meg Byrd demonstrates her skill four feet off of the ground on the balance beam.

"Late again!"

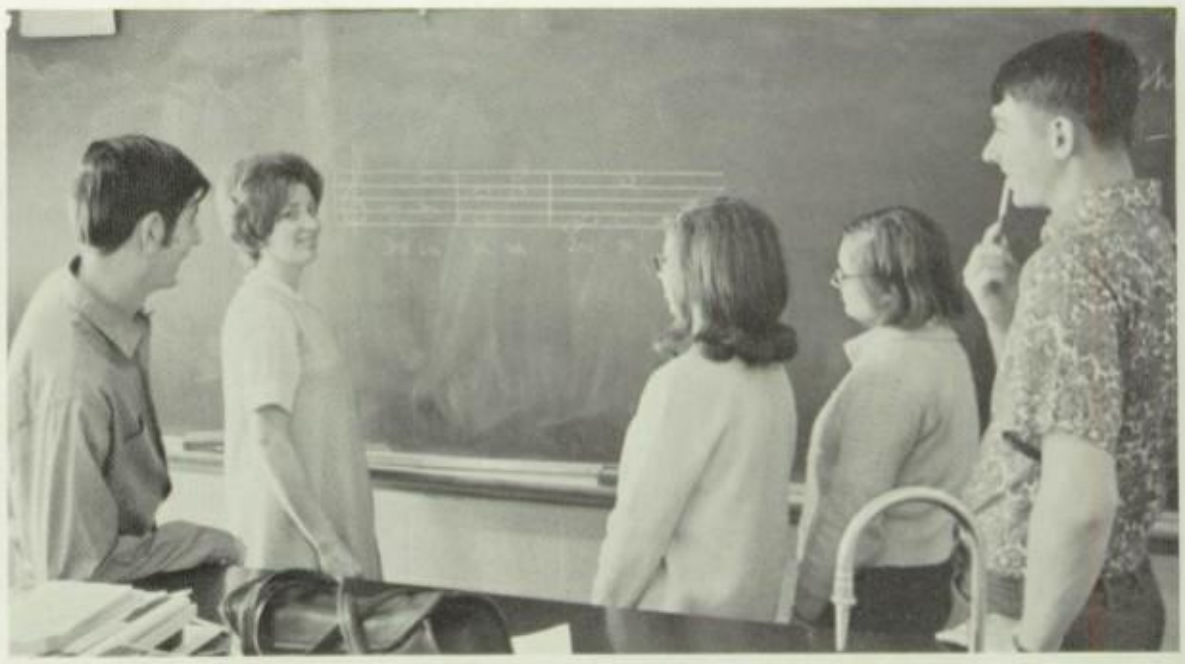
NANCY WEEMS
E. T. S. U.—B.S.

"Well, do you like it on me?"

Learning to express oneself in a concise and interesting manner is the objective of the Speech and Dramatics class. Speeches before the class and in assembly as well as actual practice in the theatric arts bring poise and control to the students. Music Appreciation, through the study of music's history and composition, enriches the students in the culture of music.

These pantomines were presented to the Speech class.

LINDA C. CROWDER
West Liberty State College—B.A.

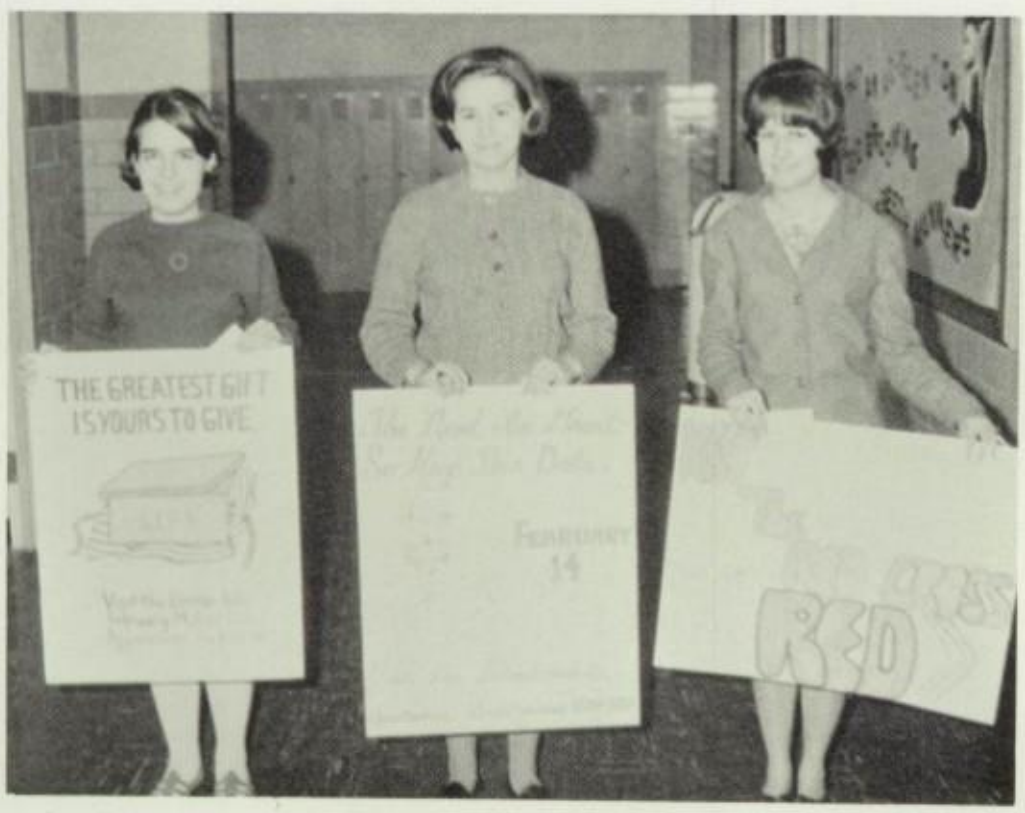


Mrs. Crowder discusses musical intervals with her Music Appreciation class.

HAPPENINGS

Art show winners: Mal Brown, Frank Sheffield, Tim Hicks, Carol Bates.

NILE D. LINKOUS
Emory & Henry—B.A.



Lola de Varona, Carol Bates, and Judy Russell were winners in our recent poster contest.

In first year art, students work with water colors, copper, linoleum, and wood while learning the basic techniques. Second and third year art courses develop individual skill and build on the principles learned in Art I. Students learn to appreciate the various forms of art.

These students who are planning to enter art school ask Mrs. Linkous' opinions on preparing their portfolios.

Students work on various forms of art.

REBEL BAND

FRONT ROW: Amy Coffey, Carol Tate, Becky Barton, Carolyn Snider, Nancy Mauck, Beth Morrell, Debbie Groseclose, Angela de Varona, Ellen Sitta. SECOND ROW: Beth Buchanan, Mary Roland, Kay Cregger, Libby Clawson, Rose Obregon, Brenda Burkett, Cathy Snider, Cindy Ellis, Dahlia Obregon, Donita Sale, Hsiu Zu Ho, Jimmy Alexander, Sherry Geib, Bill Echols, Mary Obregon, Justine Cregger, Barbara Vaught. THIRD ROW: Sarah Griffits, Bonnie Burkett, Sally Matthews, Debbie Leek, Pam Russell, Phyllis Farris, Cindy Collins, Milton Garrett, Sharon Hutton, Gary Armstrong, Allan Frith, Pam Parks, Monnie Richardson, Jackie Newman, Charles Carter, Joe Parker, Linda Parsons, Freddy Sprinkle, James Pugh, Gary Boyette, Charles Harrington, Terry Darnell Jerry Landreth. FOURTH ROW: Mike Adams, Jackie Hudson, Therisel Hancock, Ronnie Earnest, Mr. Evans, director, Dale Alexander, Roger Adams.

Composed of woodwind, brass, and percussion sections, the Hurricane Rebel Band, under the direction of Roy Evans, is made up of 56 members. Among these, 21 were chosen for the All-State band, and one, Hsiu Zu Ho, was chosen for the All-American band, bringing great honor to our school. Last summer the band attended the Sun Fun Festival at Myrtle Beach, and plans to return this year. Our band also represents us in parades around our area, and at District Festival, where they received a Superior rating this year.

Majorettes: Mary Obregon, Cathy Snider, Brenda Burkett, Cindy Ellis, Sharon Hutton, Amy Coffey, Head.

MUSICAL

Marion's twenty-one All-State representatives were: Carol Tate, Becky Barton, Beth Buchanan, Mary Rowland, Amy Coffey, Dahlia Obregon, Donita Sale, Cathy Snider, Cindy Ellis, Ellen Sitta, Hsiu Zu Ho, Sarah Griffits, Brenda Burkett, Roger Adams, Ronnie Earnest, Bill Echols, Jack Hudson, Gary Armstrong, Jimmy Alexander, Charles Carter, Richard Darnell.

Hsiu Zu Ho was one of the two bass-clarinets chosen to represent our country in the tour of twenty-two European countries made annually by the All-American band.

The majorettes present smiling faces as they proudly lead our band in another parade.

Front Row—(left to right) Kathy Sheffield, Kathy Hall, Millie Parsons, Terry Blevins, Linda Earnest, Donna Doss, Joanne Shupe, Arlene Stephens, Mrs. Crowder, Director. Second Row—Jean Wood, Shirley Rouse, Mildred Atwell, Teresa Hayes, Paula Harris, Sharon Travis, Linda Cress, Joyce Moore, Debbie Calhoun, Kathy Stinson, Sandra Gillespie. Third Row—Martha Patton, Margaret Patton, Carolyn Gilley, Freida Elledge, Becky Campbell, Debbie Denzler, Betty Hash, Mary Kegley, Sharon Dowell, Kathy Pickle, Hattie Coe. Fourth Row—Harvey Pridemore, Harold Beverly, Darrell Schwartz, Barry Spitzer, Mark Hogan, Douglas Delp.

Harold Beverly, Linda Cress, Freida Elledge, Joanne Shupe, and Barry Spitzer were members of the All-Regional Chorus. (Not pictured, Donna Doss).

A scene from "Mississippi Melody," the operetta presented by the Chorus.

The MSHS Chorus has done a fine job of entertaining both the school and the community by singing in the Variety Show and participating in the Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter assemblies. For the first time this year, an operetta, spotlighting individual talent was successfully presented. To obtain funds for new music the 36 member chorus sold programs at home football games. Six members represented MSHS at All-Regional Chorus, out of which four were selected for the All-State Chorus.

The Chorus members displayed their talent in the Variety Show by singing.

STUDENTS LEARN TO

First year students learn the fundamentals of typing with Mrs. Rusek's help.

Miss Wolfenden watches her students as they copy their shorthand into their notebooks.

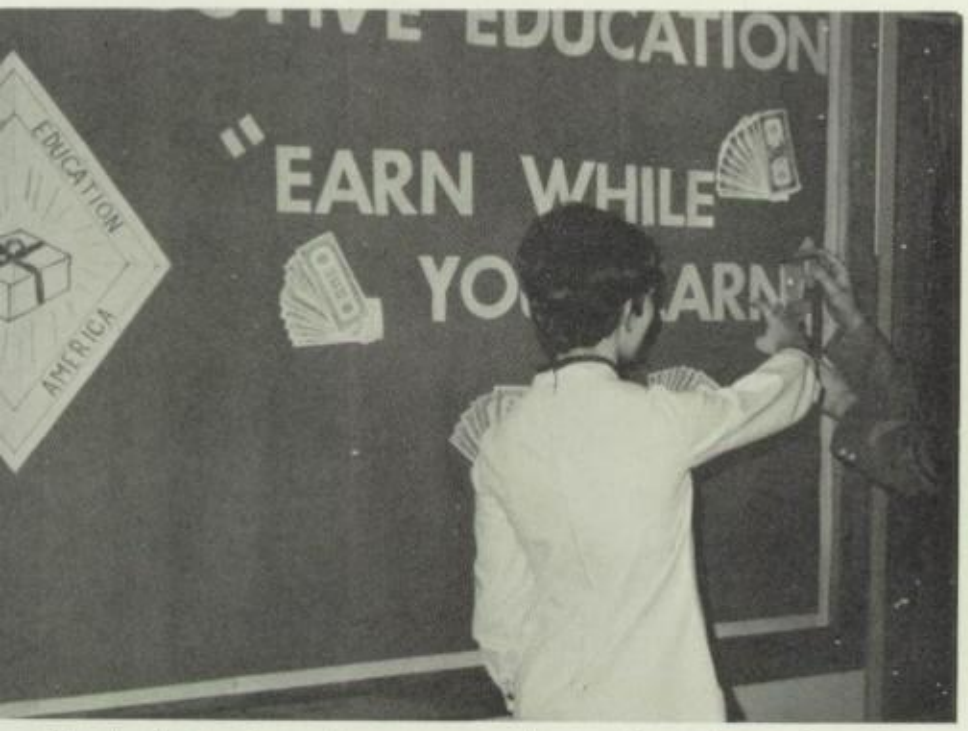
ANNE B. WOLFENDEN
Radford—B.S.

Typing I gives students a basic knowledge of personal and office style typing. In Typing II a more detailed study is given and electric typewriters are used. Two years of Shorthand are taught, using a new approach to better the students understanding. Students in Office Practice use up-to-date equipment to stimulate actual business office conditions, and, this year, have furthered their knowledge of office training by actually taking part in an office job.

The Office Practice class, under Mrs. Overbey's supervision, work on all phases of office life.

SERVE THE PUBLIC



This bulletin board presents the entire idea of D. E. to our students—"Earn while you learn."

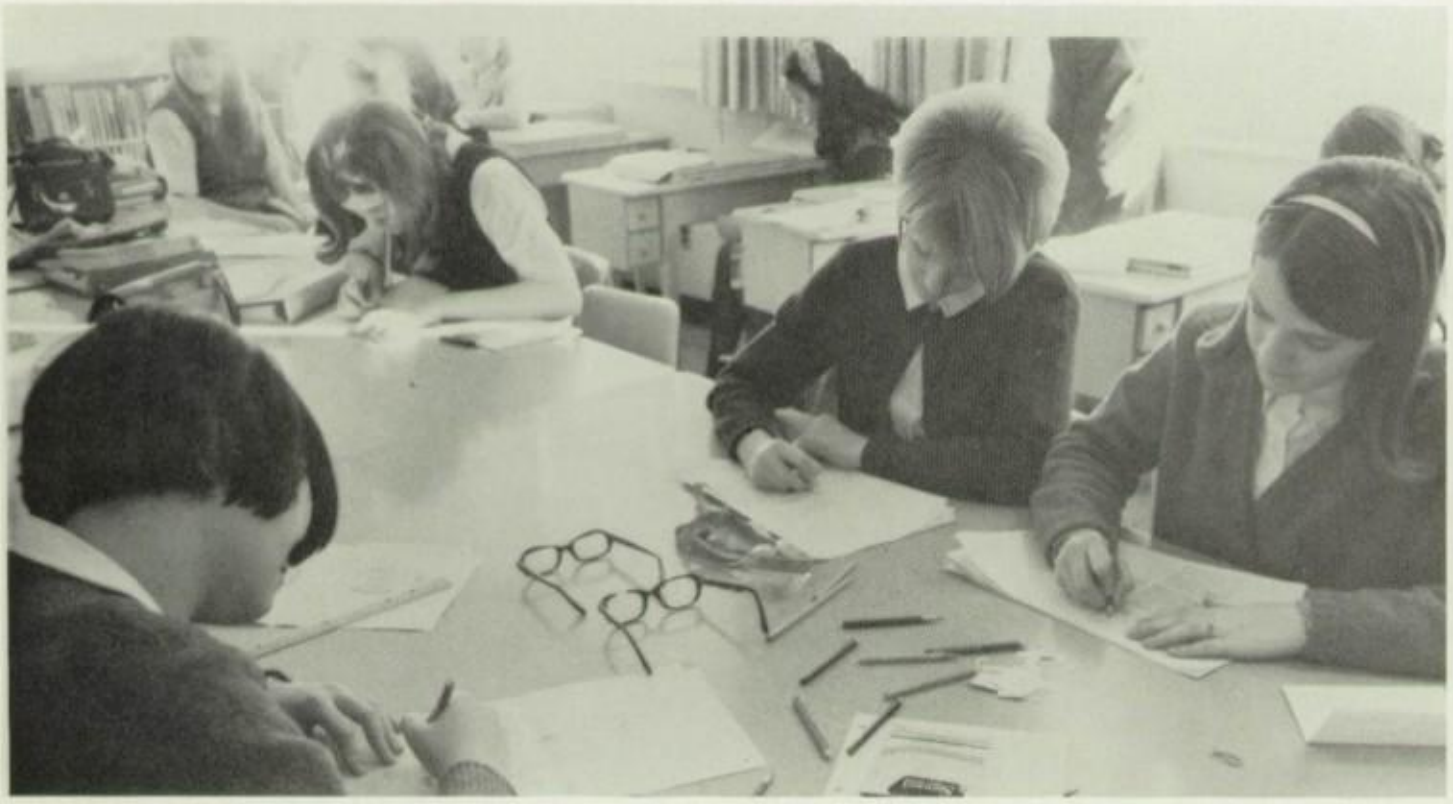
ROGER WALL
Tennessee Wesleyan College—B.S.

Distributive Education offers students entering this field a thorough knowledge of marketing and distribution. This is achieved by classroom study, district competitions and workshops, and also by actual experiences in this field through on-the-job training.

Officers of the Distributive Education Club: Betty Funk, Johnny Leek, Jerry Gross, James Hamm, Mr. Wall, Sponsor, Randy Hawkins, Tony Barnett, and Dwight Blevins.

STUDENTS PREPARE



Girls learn to plan their future homes.

GREETA I. NEESE
Radford College—B.S.

Each year Home Economics presents a wider variety of homemaking arts. In addition to sewing and cooking, girls have practice in house-planning, child care, and money management, all designed to help girls become good homemakers in the future.

This year girls and boys in advanced vocational courses switched for a six-weeks; the boys taking home home economics and the girls taking agriculture.

Wonder if anybody will eat it?

Sewing is a vital part of every home economics course.

FOR FUTURE HAPPENINGS

This course includes Shop, Power Mechanics, and Mechanical Drawing for Vocational and College Preparatory students. Industrial Art students learn the use of the basic industrial tools. In Agriculture the students learn improved animal husbandry and better methods of farm production. Field trips highlight points brought out in the classroom.

Mr. Vicars helps a Mechanical Drawing student.

SUPPLEMENTARY HAPPENINGS

The History class watches a filmstrip of the first space rendezvous.

To help students better their reading ability, special machines are used under the direction of Mrs. Bass and Mrs. French. Latest techniques are practiced in the special sessions to advance the comprehensive ability of the student. Mrs. Currin coaches students in history courses.

Using various machines in the reading room, Mrs. French and Mrs. Bass help their students.

CLASS HAPPENINGS

LIFE AT M.S.H.S.

Senior Class Officers

Mrs. Echols, sponsor; Freida Elledge, Vice President; Chin-Chin Ho, President; Carol Bates, Treasurer; Nancy Spager, Secretary.

The Seniors have spent 4320 hours extending their friendships, bettering themselves, gaining knowledge through study, learning to co-operate and to understand through participation and preparing to meet the challenges of tomorrow. This they have accomplished through the years as Freshmen, Sophomores, Juniors, and finally, Seniors. They hope to achieve their objectives in life by further building themselves on the knowledge they have gained during their school years. MSHS has molded a well-rounded group of future citizens.

THE SENIORS SALUTE IT.

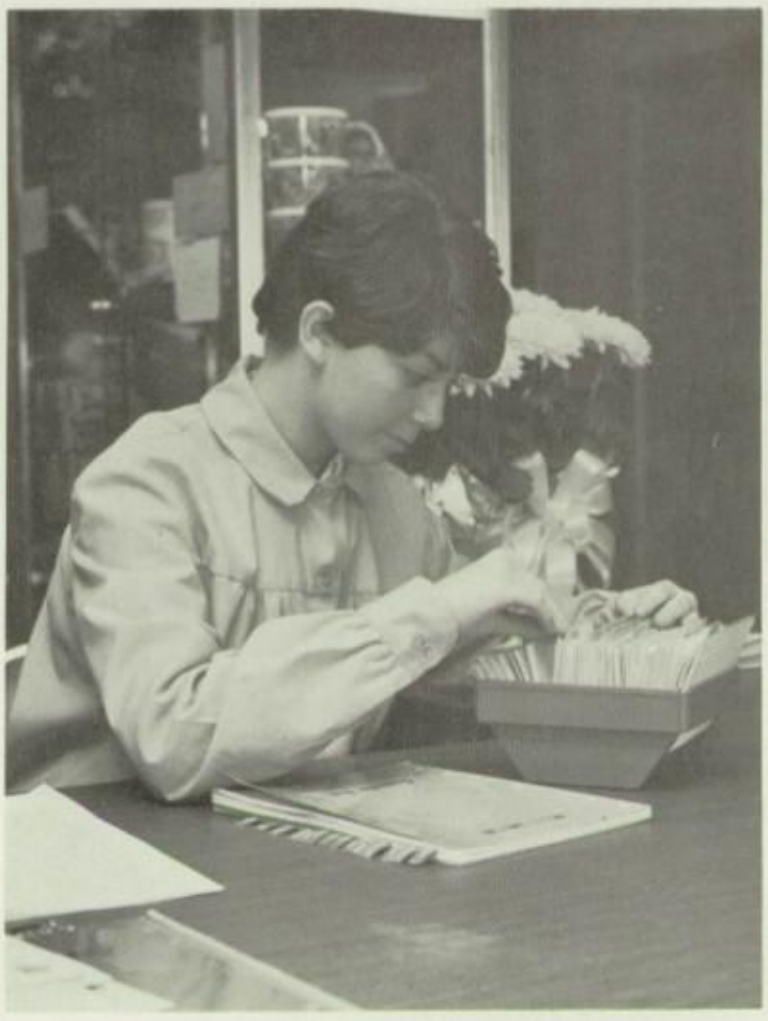
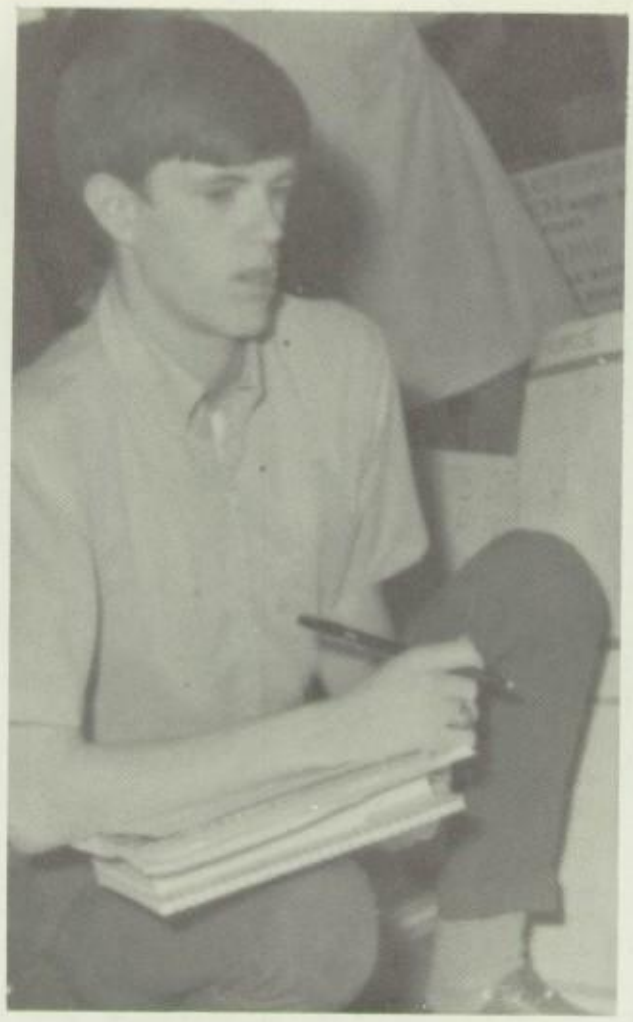
WHAT IS
THANKSGIVING
TO YOU?



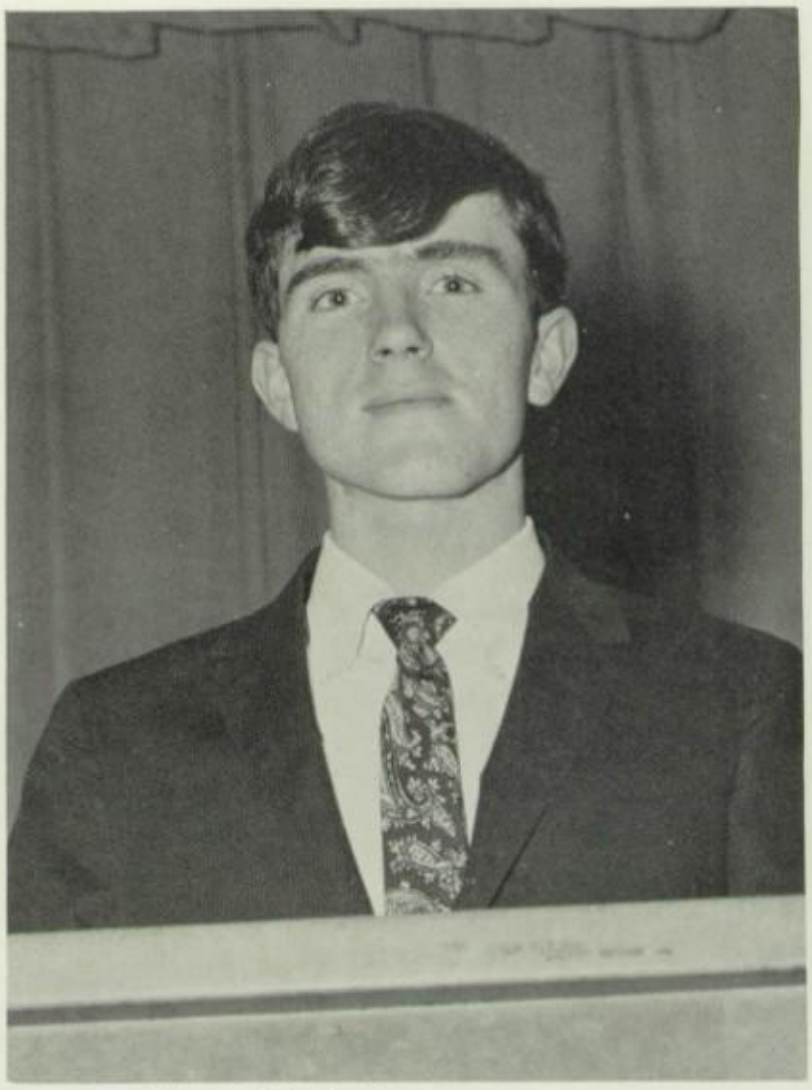


ORGANIZATIONAL HAPPENINGS

STUDENT CO-OPERATIVE

Leadership for the happenings is based not only in the administration, but in the students themselves. Through the Student Co-operative Association, students help to guide MSHS in its progress onward.

As President of the SCA, Ralph Shupe is the chief liaison between students and faculty. Ralph, through his co-ordinating efforts, has helped keep the activities of the SCA among the major happenings of 1968.

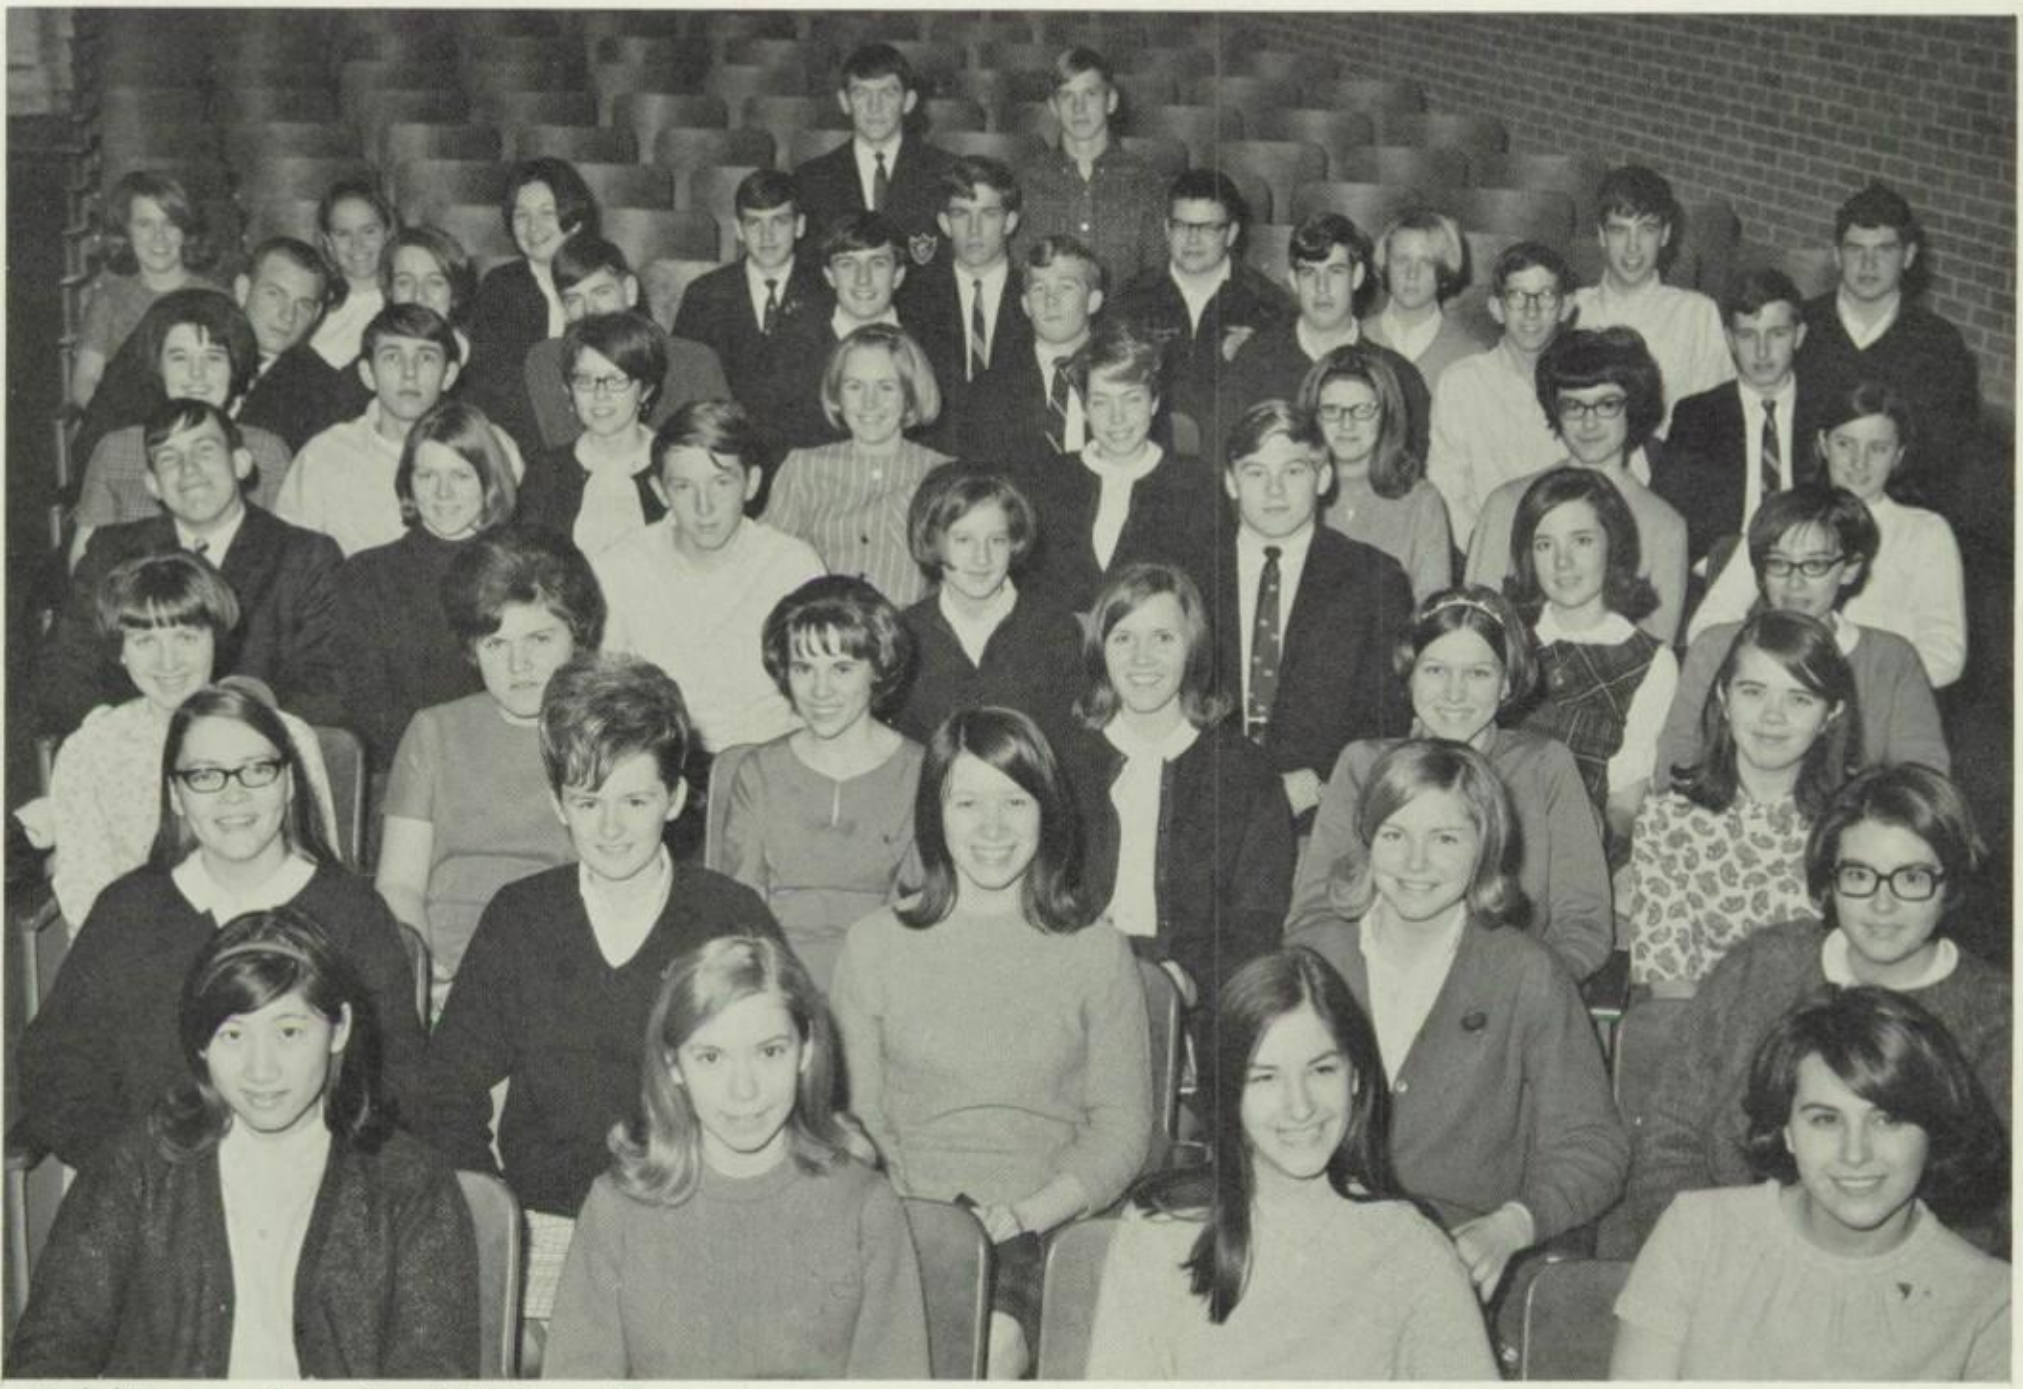


Our President—Ralph Shupe

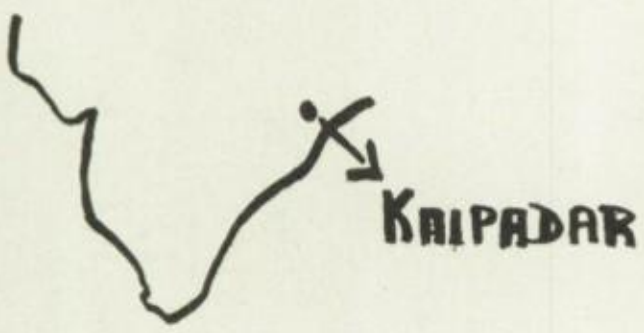
Mrs. Waters and Ralph co-ordinate their thoughts.

The Executive Council: Mrs. Jane Waters, Sponsor; Wally Sale, Parliamentarian; Penny Dixon, Chaplain; Sharon Maiden, Reporter; Meg Byrd, Treasurer; Suzanne Atkins, Secretary; Charles Thomas, Vice-President; Ralph Shupe, President.

ASSOCIATION



Ralph's co-workers—The SCA Council



As the result of the 1967 Stage-O-Rama, over $1000 was raised for the support of a companion school in Kaipadar, India. At present, 40 students attend school in Kaipadar from the surrounding farms and villages, but the new building will hold over 200 students. This SCA project is in co-operation with the Peace Corps School Partnership Program, and supports a four-room school for grades 8 through 11.

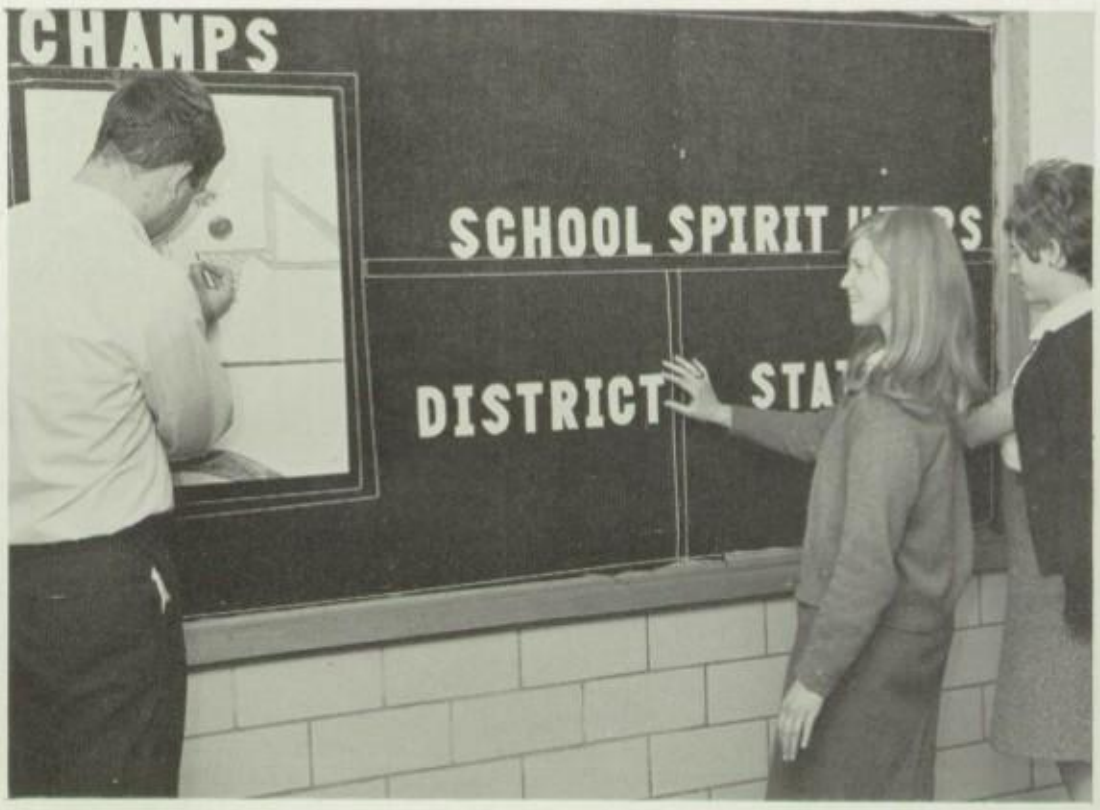
THE SCA IN COMMITTEES

Personal fulfillment for many girls is achieved through their work as Candy Stripers.

To supplement the work of the SCA Council, committees develop specialized projects covering every phase needed for the smooth running of MSHS.

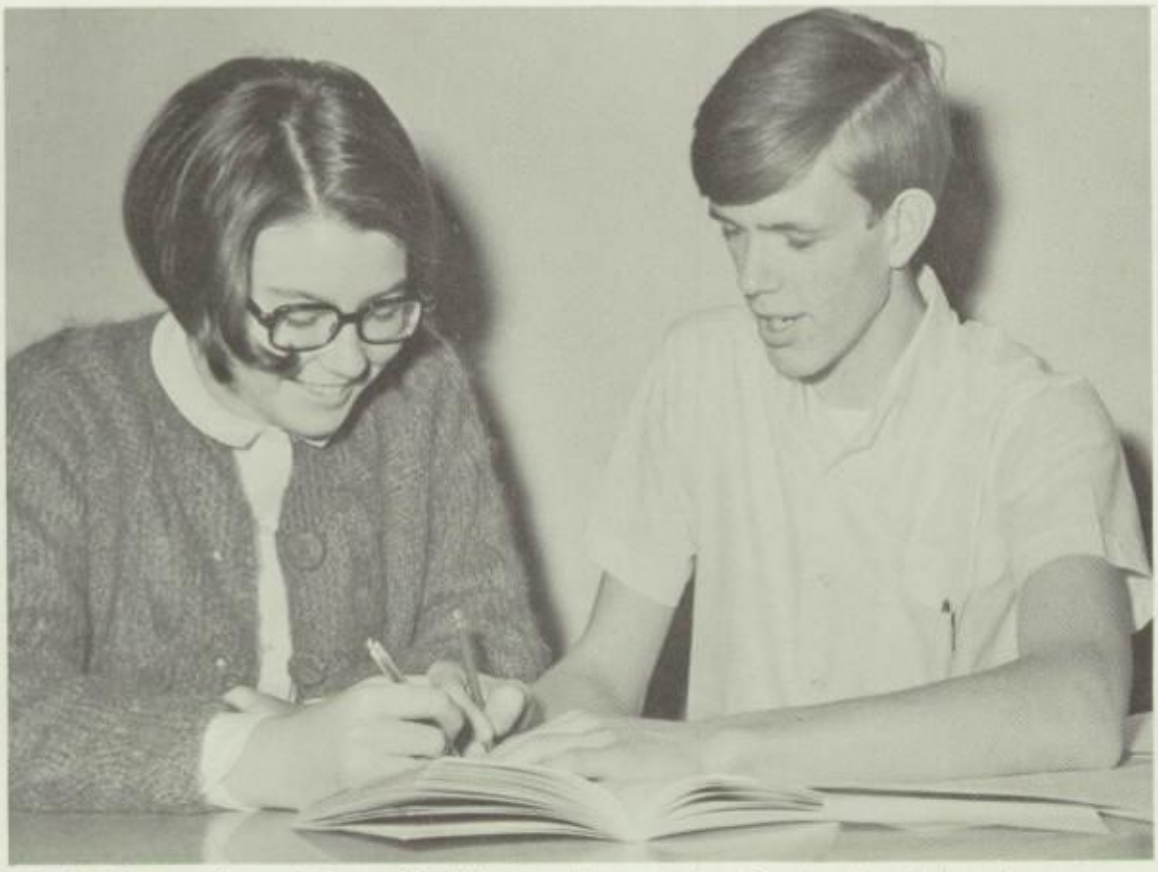
Chairmen and their committee members extend the happenings into the deepest parts of the student body, from discipline to clubs to school spirit.

Plans for the annual Stage-O-Rama are made in advance.



Marvin Powers and his co-workers prepare an SCA bulletin board.

IS THE SCA AT WORK



Sally Seward and Brent Hall keep the spark of school spirit aglow.

Problems are ironed out through the joint committee of students and faculty members.

A club is selected each month for outstanding achievement.

Nancy Sparger supervises the annual beauty pageant.

HAPPENINGS THROUGH

Dianne Blevins, President; Lou Thompson, Vice-President; Beth Scott, Secretary; Linda Hull, Treasurer; Terry Blevins, Songleader; Pat Blevins, Chaplain; Mickey Fenyk, Reporter; Linda Snavely, Historian; Mrs. Eloise Courtney, Sponsor.

Delegates of the Y-Clubs to attend MGA.

The Gamma Delta Tri-Hi-Y is composed of Junior and Senior girls who work to promote high standards of Christian ideals. Faith in God is emphasized in their service projects which range from the sponsoring of an orphan child to the wrapping of Christmas packages for patients in the Southwestern State Hospital. These projects reveal efforts which create the most worthy happenings of MSHS.

"Don't you think this would look best?"

Klassroom Kwiz participants—Sharon Crouse, Carleen Slemp, Debbie Martin

RELIGIOUS EMPHASIS

Officers and Committee Chairmen
Front row, Mrs. Winters, Sponsor; Maria deVarona, President; Hsiu Zu Ho, Vice-President; Patty Warren, Secretary; Jeri Deel, Treasurer; Cathy Copenhaver. Second row, Jean Lambert, Ann Clear, Glenda Stanley, Susan Cook, Chaplain; Susan Burnside, Beth Buchanan, and Freida Parks. Third row, Angela deVarona, Ann Hull, Becky Taylor, Pat Smythe, Cathy Dillman, Angela Musser, Patti Roland, Donna Murray.

Sophomore and Freshmen girls who seek a better fulfillment of their Christian ideals can find this through their participation in the projects of the Jr. Tri-Hi-Y. Major projects for this year have been a spaghetti supper, a Christmas party for underprivileged children and sending valentines to an orphanage.

After serving others, members enjoy their spaghetti.

Children's faces show the true spirit of Christmas.

Hi-Y

The service project of cleaning the trophy cases is carried out.

The Hi-Y Club is composed of Junior and Senior boys who work to extend Christian ideals to other youth of the school. They emphasize their ideals through service projects such as co-sponsoring the Christmas Dance and holding the Donkey Basketball game which is a favorite happening of the year.

Junior Hi-Y

Modeled along the lines of the Hi-Y, the Junior Hi-Y serves the school and community by promoting strong character and high moral standards. The financial project for this year was selling combs.

"Buy a comb and support the Jr. Hi-Y."

Officers:
Front row—Mike Olinger, Reporter; Robert McCloud, Secretary; Bobby Fox, President; Steve Glenn,Treasurer. Second row—Mr. John Fisher, Sponsor; David Kiser, Vice-President; Jeff Snider, Chaplain; Paul Little, Sergeant-at-Arms.

Beta Club

First row: Mr. Winters, Sponsor; Shirley Neitch, Treasurer; Patsy Dishner, Vice-President; Mary Ann Williams, Chaplain; Jeanne Conner, President; Nancy Sparger, Secretary; Pam Faine, Reporter. Second row: Gary Reynolds, Chin Chin Ho, Mary Guy, Linda Snavely, Rebecca Currin, Freida Elledge, Dianne Blevins, Carleen Slemp, Mary Obregon, Lynn Graybeal, Terry Blevins, Jerry Landreth. Fourth row: Brenda Slagle, Linda Hull, Lou Thompson, Charles Kirby, Charles Thomas, David Atkins. Not present: Sharon Crouse, Ann Funk, Joyce Suit.

Students at MSHS who have maintained an average of 93 are recognized by being selected to become members of the Beta Club. Members sell candy to support school service projects, including the sponsorship of scholastic letters and scholarships to worthy members of the club. A new project of the Beta Club for this year is a tutoring program designed to meet the needs of fellow students.

Patsy Dishner tutors Joe Norman in his studies.

New members are tapped in the Beta Club Assembly.

SCHOLARSHIP

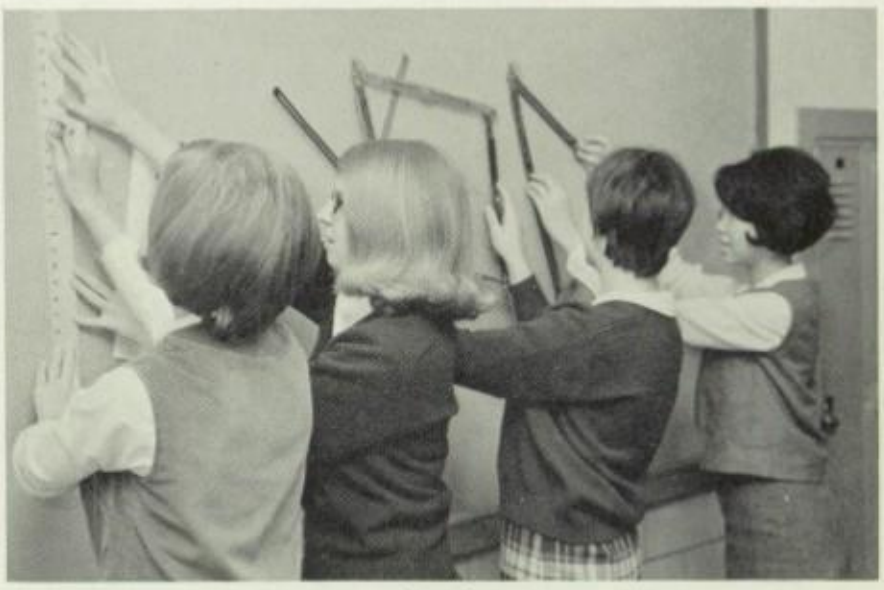
Future Teachers of America

Patty Warren, Vice-President; Mr. Callis, Sponsor; Bonita Farmer, Reporter; Eddie Houck, President; Sally Seward, Secretary; Mr. Wingfield, Sponsor; Pat Fuller, Treasurer.

The Future Teachers of America develop the skills in preparation for their future profession in teaching by acting as teachers' aides, studying teaching methods, and observing the teachers at MSHS. Intermingling service projects with the club goals, FTA members are preparing themselves well for the future.

"Hey, teacher, what does this mean?"

The Teacher of the Month Certificate is presented to Mrs. Jane Weaver.



"Now, we've got to get this thing straight."

THE FUTURE OF

Future Homemakers of America

Officers:
Martha Funk, Parliamentarian; Patty Hearn, Treasurer; Carol Hudson, Historian; Barbara Catron, Chaplain; Linda Cress, Secretary; Carol Fuller, Photographer; Terri Evans, Reporter; Donna Clark, Songleader; Velma Ashby, Vice-President; Mrs. Greeta Neese, Sponsor; Joyce Slemp, President.

A special happening at MSHS this year is the Federation Spring Rally.

Who said a car wash was fun?

Girls interested in homemaking or enrolled in homemaking classes comprise the Future Homemakers of America. The club carries out a program of work taken from National, State, or Federation level. Projects which have been completed this year are Good Family Relations through Communication and Jobs, Careers, and You. Money-raising projects are car washes and bake sales. The F.H.A. is a service organization which strives to emphasize the importance of the development of individuals as worthy home members.

First row: Ted Farmer, Reporter; Gary Reynolds, Parliamentarian; Judy Overbay, Secretary; Anne Funk, President; Linda Leonard, Vice-President; Donna Thomas, Chaplain; Jo Ann Shupe, Treasurer; Joyce Carrico, Historian. Second row: Miss Wolfendon, Sponso r; Mrs. Rusek, Sponsor; Dawn Catron, Glenda Glass, Donna Clark, Dana Peake, Becky Naff, Mrs. Overbey, Sponsor. Third row: Linda Lampkins, Mary Ann Williams, Susan Williams, Anita Murray, Peggy Carrico, Linda Cress, Therisal Hancock, Sharon Hutton, Brenda Gamble. Fourth row: Joyce Leonard, Janice Fisher, Ann Echols, Joyce Suits, Nancy Mercer, Betty Fisher, Linda Anders, Patty Hawkins. Fifth row: Debra Blakely, Pat Blevins, Sharon Maiden, Mardee Hoge, Sharon Cline, Debra Parks, Janice Shupe, Linda Pickle, Maynard Newman, Danny Thompson, Jim Owens.

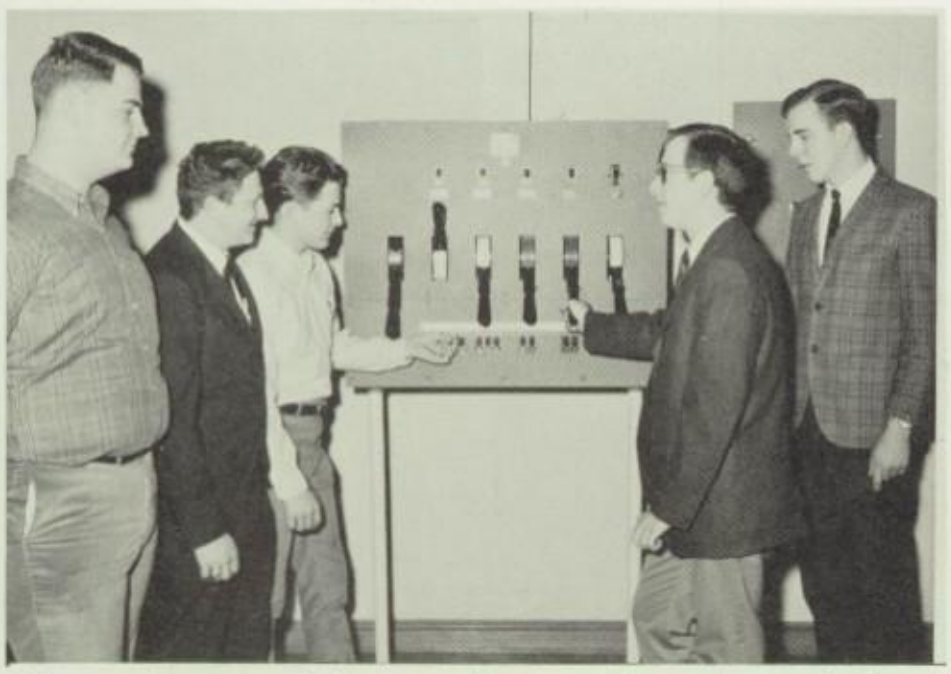
Working hard to draw attention to commercial interests, members decorate a bulletin board.

Students enrolled in the commercial courses further their interests by membership in the Future Business Leaders of America. Service projects that members work to promote include the sponsoring of a Christmas party for the mentally retarded and gifts for a needy family. The FBLA also publishes the Junior High School newspaper.

CAREERS IN INDUSTRY

Industrial Arts Club

First row: Mr. Vicars, Sponsor; Richard Britton, Vice-Pr esident; Wayne Pennington, President; Frankie Shupe, Secretary-Treasurer; Don Blevins, Reporter. Second r ow: Danny Hawk, Maynard Newman, Beattie Coe, Dennis Lockhart, Stuart Jones, John Burke. Third row: Wayne Gamble, Ronnie Morehead, Frank Sheffield, Randy Winters, Bill Lockhart, Roy Cale.



Wayne instructs fellow-members on how to work the lighting.

The Industrial Arts Club performs such vital school services as preparing the auditorium for assemblies by adjusting the lighting and sound systems, painting scenery for plays, and putting up the school announcement sign. Through the work of the Industrial Arts Club, MSHS runs on a smooth, even basis and the community is informed of upcoming school activities.

EXPLORATION IN SCIENCE

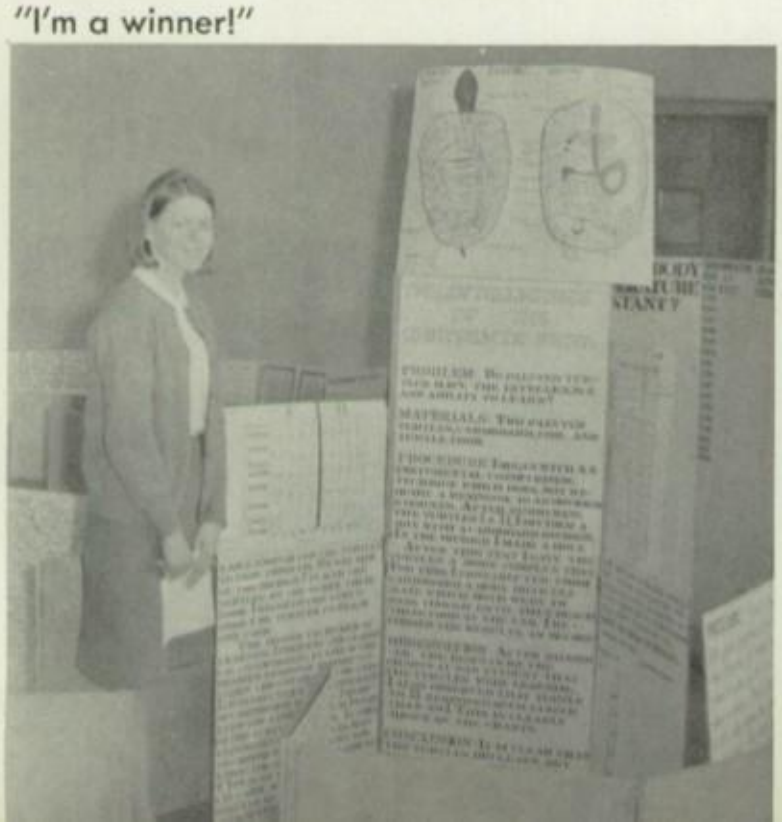
Science

Front Row—Jeff Snider, Vice-President; Mary Obregon, President; David Kiser, Secretary. Second Row—Mary Guy, Parliamentarian; Amanda Currin, Reporter; Eddie Houck, Treasurer.

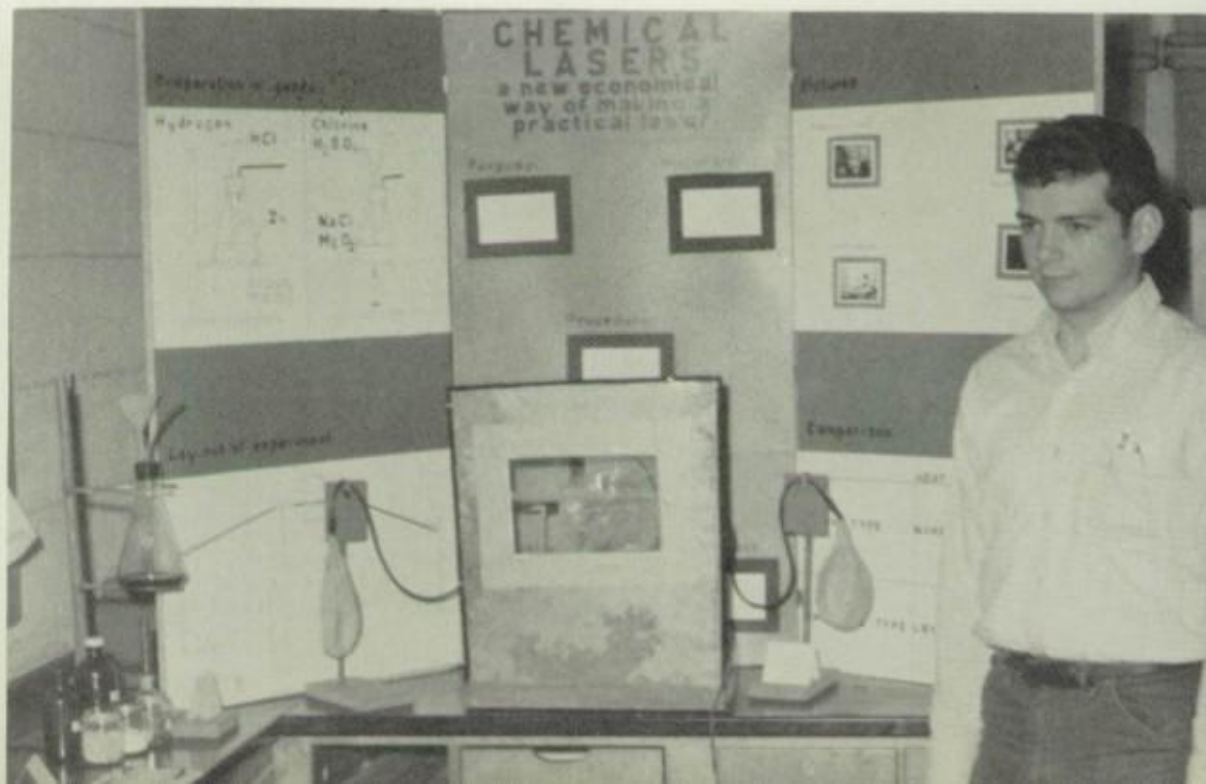
Supplementing the basic science courses by offering additional knowledge to tomorrow's scientists, the Science Club presents varied and interesting programs to its members. Each club member is required to do research and present it in a science project.

"Do you think it will explode?"

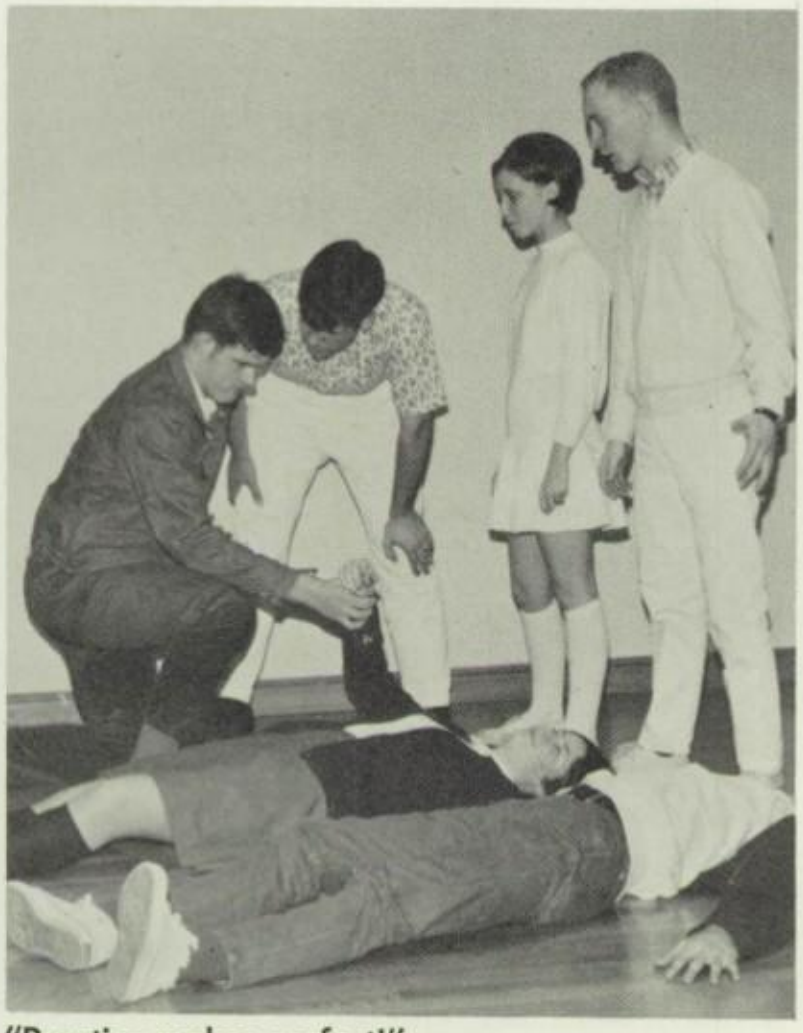
"I'm a winner!"



Hard work brings reward.



Forensic



"Practice makes perfect!"

Forensic Winners—Betsy Lemmon, Girls' Public Speaking; Kathy Paschal, Girls' Prose Reading; Mark Groseclose, Boys' Poetry Reading; Mary Whitmore, Girls' Poetry Reading; Charles Harrington, Boys' Public Speaking.

Under the direction of Mrs. Nancy Weems, the Forensic Club works to sponsor the English arts of speech, dramatics, and prose and poetry reading. Conducting both the MSHS and Smyth County Forensic contests, as well as producing a one-act play for district competition, members work to meet their goals.

Front Row—Mrs. Nancy Weems, Sponsor; Amanda Currin, Secretary; Betty Thompson, Vice-President; Donna Doss, President; Jean Pedigo, Treasurer; Susan Cook, Reporter. Second Row—Brent Hall, Charles Carter, Mike Adams, Bill Murphy, Carol Hudson, Becky Schmidt. Third Row—Lois Henderson, Mary Whitmore, Mike Olinger, Lacy Werth, Lee Graybeal, Virginia Smith.

Debate

Virginia Smith, Vice-President; Miss Maiden Sponsor; Melody McClung, President; Miss Rector, Sponsor; Mary Rowland, Secretary.

The MSHS Debate Team represents our school in debating contests throughout the year. Developing their skills by using Debate Kits and having debates among the members themselves, our Debate Team has grown into a well-co-ordinated unit.

Members brush up on their techniques by using debate kits.

Drama

A scene from Outward Bound.

Drama Club Officers: Linda Fuller, Secretary-Treasurer; Cheryl McKinnon, Historian; Mr. Richard Fuller, sponsor; Donna Marchant, President; Angela Musser, Reporter; Naimo Goodman, Vice-President.

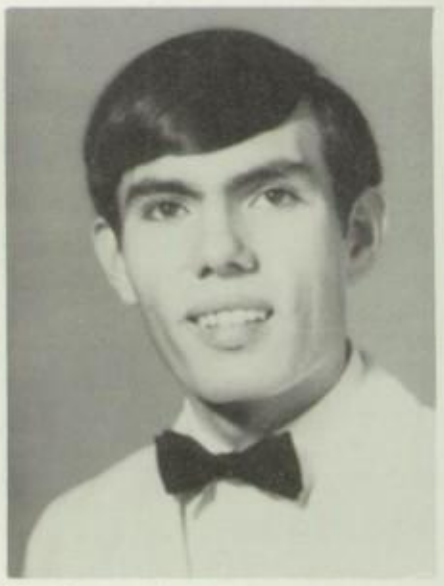
THE REVEALER OF THE 1968 HAPPENINGS

Hurricane

A yearbook refreshes the students' memories of their high school years. The staff and sponsors of the Hurricane prepare a pictorial history of the happenings of MSHS throughout the year. The revealers of the 1968 happenings work hard to present the student body with an annual they can be proud to own.

Editor-in-chief—
Carleen Slemp



Business Manager—
Gary Reynolds

The business staff discusses the ad sales with Mr. Mac.

With the assistance ot Mrs. Echols, Carleen Slemp and Mary Guy examine layouts while Sharon Crouse and Sally Seward look through cover patterns.

Chin-Chin Ho and Peggy Burke draw layouts while Pam Faine reads copy. Assisted by Miss Wolfendon, Delania Shupe types while Carolyn Gilley dictates.

Freida Elledge, Linda Snavely, and Judy Blevins assist Ann Harkins in choosing pictures for the sports section.

FEATURED HAPPENINGS

These were presented throughout the year by the various clubs, organizations and classes. The main happenings included holiday dances, class plays, and beauty pageants.

HOMECOMING

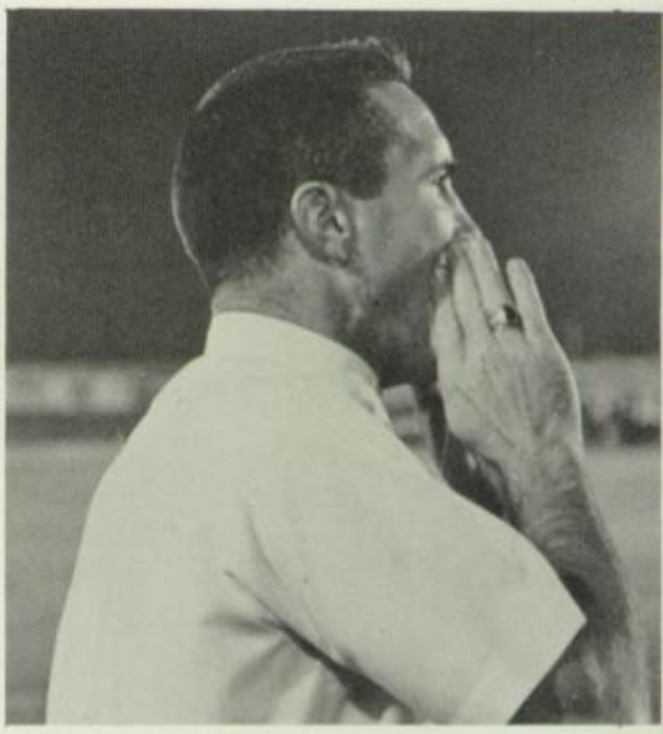
"Scarlet Fever" hit M.S.H.S. on October the fifth. Temperatures rose high as the talent of Marion High was displayed in the Thursday night Variety Show. Everything from Hog-Stompers to Hippies appeared on this scene, which ended around the warmth of the bonfire.

"A little bit of soul" added to "Scarlet Fever."

Senior Swine-Stompers

Spirit catches on fire

Senior members of the court, Carol Bates, Dianne Blevins, and Suzanne Atkins, and Junior members, Brenda Burkett and Karen Johnson are presented to the town of Marion.



Coach Earp puts the word on our guys.

HAPPENINGS

After the parade on Friday, a capacity crowd filled the stadium to witness the crowning of the Homecoming Queen, Dianne Blevins, and the efforts of the mighty Hurricane football squad. Scarlet Fever was brought to an unwanted, yet fun-filled close, as the excited students gathered Saturday night to dance their troubles away.

Patsy Moore passes on her crown to Queen Dianne Blevins.

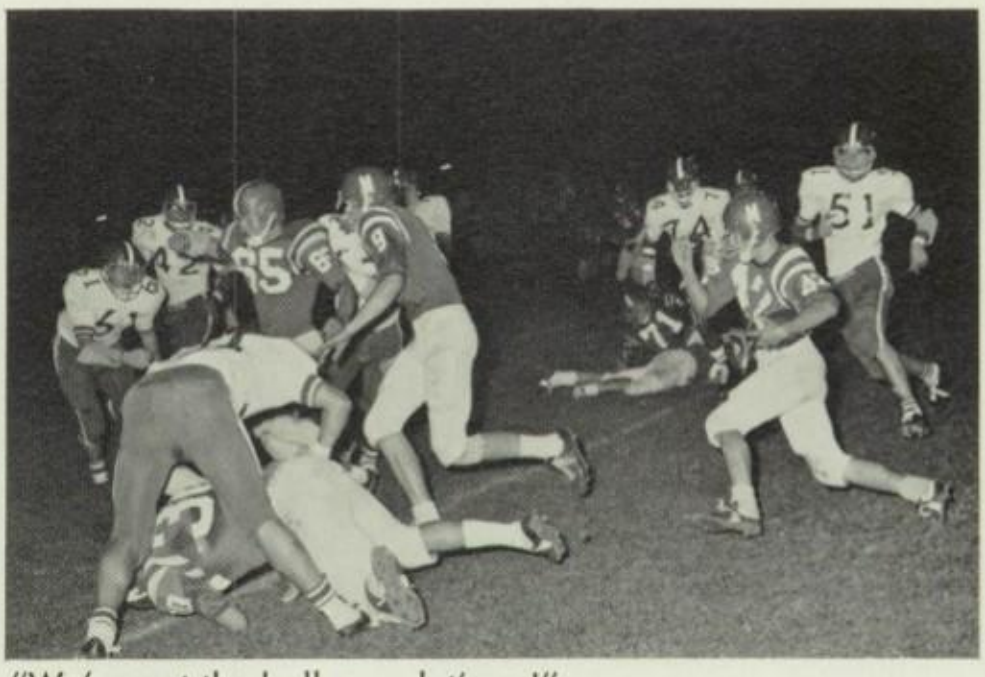
"Get that Bulldog!"



"We've got the ball now, let's go!"

MISS M.S.H.S. BEAUTY PAGEANT

Brenda Burkett smiles as she is crowned Miss M.S.H.S. by Mr. Williams.

The auditorium of M.S.H.S. was transformed into a fairy tale castle where forty-five lovely girls were gathered on November the eleventh. From these sleeping beauties, Miss Marion Senior High School and her court were selected. A large number of admirers gathered to support one of the SCA's money-raising projects.

Semi-finalists await the judges' final decision.

The final decision—The Queen and her court.

Emotions of the sleeping beauties are brought to life.

"MISSISSIPPI MELODY"

The Choral class, under the direction of Mrs. Alvin Crowder, brought to the stage of M.S.H.S. its first operetta. Acting and singing were combined to re-enact the adventures of Tom Sawyer and Huckleberry Finn.

"THE BARRETTS OF WIMPOLE STREET"

How beautiful, how delightful, how captivating, were some of the comments which could be heard throughout the audience as the curtain ran down on the final act of Rudolp Besier's "The Barretts of Wimpole Street" presented by the senior class. An air of feverish excitement began in early February with the first announcement for the tryouts and lasted until the final production on April 5. Following the selection of the cast and the committees came weeks of fun, work, frustration, and anticipation. Nevertheless, the final perfomance was proof of hard work, originality, craftsmanship, talent and cooperation on the part of all who participated.

HURRICANE

The castle shook that night!

The Year of the Happenings took on a regal aspect on April 26, as the Juniors presented to the Seniors of 1968 "Hurricane Knights." Crossed swords, gilded shields, stone walls, and "Ye Royal Closet" provided the setting representing this romantic and chivalrous period of history.

Lending a background of music felicitous to the occasion were the Redcoat Review from Princeton, West Virginia. Blending both the faster, more popular music with the slower, more regal melodies to advantage, the Redcoats added greatly to the 1968 Prom.

The favors presented to each young "maiden" were small charms with "Hurricane Knights" engraved across them, which will bring back pleasant memories in the future for those who attended the 1968 Junior-Senior Prom.

"Come, on Don . . ."

Although lacking in experience, the Scarlet Hurricane football team rolled to a successful 7-3 season this fall. Opening their season with a 20-0 victory over arch rival Chilhowie, Marion was well on its way to making the headlines. Abingdon and Graham were the next to fall in the hands of Marion, with Martin Lee, Jerry Blevins, David Archer, Mal Brown, and the Thomas brothers spurring the offense. Losing the next three games in succession, Marion came on strong to win the last four games.

Spirit among the team and the fans added much to this year's success. Coach Earp felt it played a vital factor this season.

In bright new red and blue uniforms, the girls began their season with a brilliant victory over the Chilhowie Warriors, and seemed to be on the road to success. With only three lettermen returning to the squad though, things stood on shaky ground. Victories from Saltville, Sugar Grove, and another from Chilhowie wrapped up their season with four wins and eight losses. Suzanne Atkins, Anne Lynn Harkins, and Lou Thompson starred at forward, while LindaSnavely, Rose Obregon, and Sharon Hopkins held down the defensive end.

For the second time in four years the Scarlet Hurricane went undefeated in the Southwest District to capture the Southwest District Championship. When the season started, no one expected this band of Scarlet Basketteers to win a championship since seven members of last year's team had graduated. However, Coaches Charlie Harkins and Benny Arnold got the ball rolling early as the team romped to an easy 52-31 victory over Abingdon and racked up sixteen straight wins to be ranked the No. 1 team in Southwest Virginia.

The fine unselfish team play became the hallmark of this year's champions as school spirit and enthusiasm ran rampant throughout our school and community.

1967-68 has been a year for making sports history at Marion Senior High School.

Coach Moe Weaver's Scarlet Hurricane wrestling squad made wrestling history with its second straight undefeated season. They won the Southwest District title and then rolled on to their second Western Regional Championship.

Three men were undefeated in the regular season, these being Arnold Sexton, Randy Snavely, and Mal Brown. In the regional tournament seven men were champions, while the other five placed second, earning the right to participate in the state tournament.

Wrestling has made its way into the story book of greats at Marion Senior High School.

With new Head Coach Benny Arnold, the track team began work early in March, hoping to improve on last year's record. Things look much better this season with many lettermen returning to the squad. Such men as Johnny Blevins, Tommy Thomas, Martin Lee, Woody Lingous, Steve Tilson, and David Atkins should see much action and bring home many victories. We still have high hopes for the completion of our new track, which should improve the track program at MSHS a great deal.

Although one of the less recognized sports around Marion High School, golf usually manages to hold the number one spot in the Southwest District. This year Coach Charlie Harkins had a fine season, with the return of star golfers Charles Kirby, Kyle Collins. Billy Dillworth, and Greg Harvey. Marion also played host to the Southwest District Tournament, which proved to be most exciting.

Betsy Lemmon—Head Cheerleader

No one knows the long, hard, and tiring hours that our cheerleaders spend to make each athletic event a big success, and this year they have done a superb job. Dressed in new red and white uniforms, each and everyone has done her part in boosting MSHS to the number one spot in everything. They have supported each team with more vigor and enthusiasm than ever before in the history of our school.

MEDICAL CENTER

T K McKEE • SALTVILLE

THE SMYTH COUNTY COMMUNITY — MEDICAL CENTER, MARION, VIRGINIA IS INDEED PROUD TO BE A PART OF THE RAPID EXPANSION AND GROWTH THAT HAS BEEN EXPERIENCED IN THE AREA IN THE PAST YEAR. THE ULTRA MODERN FACILITY LOCATED ON PARK BOULEVARD IN MARION IS NEARING THE COMPLETION OF THE FIRST YEAR OF OPERATION AT THE NEW LOCATION.

THE SMYTH COUNTY COMMUNITY HOSPITAL MEDICAL CENTER IS JUST A PART OF THE GROWING MEDICAL COMPLEX BEING REALIZED IN SMYTH COUNTY AND THE MOUNTAIN EMPIRE.

THE CLOSE OF THE HAPPENINGS

As the 1967-68 school year draws to a close, all the happenings of the year, the happy and the sad, the poignant and the exciting, will slowly dissolve until they remain only a faint shadow in the minds of everyone who lived through the Happening Year. It is the hope of those who worked diligently upon your annual that this book will reawaken the slumbering memories of the happening generation. As the years pass and the happening generation becomes the "older" generation, it is our wish that you will recall that time before, when you participated in that greatest of all happenings — 1968 — THE HAPPENING YEAR.
